ENGLAND DECLARES WAR ON TURKEY, ALLIES MAY JOIN

EVEN BREAK OVER STATE

Hammond Certain of Governorship.

PLURALITY IS 20,000

Republican State Chairman Concedes Lee's Defeat.

St. Paul, Nov. 5.—Winfield Scott Hammond's plurality for governor of Minnesota will be approximately his combined plurality in the Twin Cities. As indicated by the returns now in this should be around 18,000 and may reach 20,000.

The returns from outside the Twin Cities are coming in slowly, but on estimates made on what are at hand the two leading candidates, Hammond and Lee, will about break even in the state outside Hennepin and Ramsey counties.

The same returns show that the Republican candidates for state offices below the governor are leading by pluralities of from 35,000 to 50,000.

Gunnar K. Bjornson, Republican state chairman, admitted Lee's defeat in a letter of congratulation to A. L. Sertor, Jr., Democratic state chairman. The letter follows:

"The returns indicate your candidacy has won. The people have registered their preference. I congratulate you. Please convey to Mr. Hammond my best wishes for a successful administration, conducted in the interest of the people, to which I shall gladly lend my co-operation."

Running Neck and Neck.

Returns from 1,775 of the outside precincts, including Duluth and a large part of St. Louis county, show that the vote is close between the two in these districts. The totals from the 1,775 precincts give Lee $2,119 and Hammond $1,286. It is hard to figure out more than an even break in the remaining precincts for either candidate.

In 918 precincts outside the Twin Cities, J. A. Buraquist, Republican, for lieutenant governor received 49,140 and Charles M. Andrist 31,537. In 759 precincts outside of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, Julius A. Schmalz for secretary of state has 46,994 and Nels Nelson Berghelm, his Democratic opponent, has 23,892. J. A. O. Proulx for state auditor leads Andrew J. Rush, Democrat, by a vote of 49,458 to 24,084 in 869 precincts. W. J. Smith, Republican, for state treasurer in 767 precincts reporting has 49,735 to 19,234 for E. M. Engelbert, the Democratic candidate. Lyndon A. Smith for attorney general in 900 precincts has a vote of 48,726 and Neil M. Cronin, Democrat, has 21,732.

Justice George L. Bunn will remain on the supreme bench of Minnesota. The voters of the state at the election Tuesday apparently have given him a majority over Judge Albert Johnson of Red Wing equal to that of Winfield Scott Hammond for governor.

DEMOCRAT MAY WIN SEAT

Eleventh Iowa District Result is in Doubt.

Des Moines, Nov. 5.—The re-election by Iowa Republicans of United States Senator Albert B. Cummins and Governor George W. Clarke having been made certain interest centered in the size of their pluralities.

Belated returns showed pluralities of 25,000 to 30,000 for Cummins and from 10,000 to 20,000 for Clarke.

With the exception of the Eleventh district it seemed certain that the Republicans had elected their congressional delegations. T. J. Steele, Democrat, was reported to have defeated Representative George C. Scott, Republican, but definite figures were not available here.

SMOOT RETURNS TO SENATE

Republican in Utah Will Have From 1,500 to 2,000 Majority.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 5.—Returns now at hand assure that Senator Smoot, Republican, has been re-elected by 1,500 to 2,000 majority over James H. Moyle, fusionist.

F. A. HEINZE.

Former Copper Magnate Dies at Saratoga, N. Y.

COPPER MAGNATE IS SUDDENLY STRICKEN

F. Augustus Heinze Dies at Saratoga, N. Y.

Saratoga, N. Y., Nov. 5.—F. Augustus Heinze, former owner of immense copper interests in the West, died suddenly here.

Mr. Heinze, whose legal residence was Saratoga, came here from New York to vote. He became ill suddenly at the home of his counsel, Nash Rockwood. His condition grew steadily worse and he died.

Mr. Heinze, who was forty-four years old, had been ill since last June with cirrhosis of the liver. He came here against the advice of his physician.

Mr. Heinze had a sensational career in the financial world. After acquiring a fortune of millions through mining interests in the West he came to New York and became interested in other ventures, most of which were unsuccessful.

For several years Mr. Heinze has been involved in litigation almost constantly and it was said by his associates that he had lost a large part of his fortune.

LITTLE CHANGE IN OREGON

Republican Succeeds Democrat as Governor.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—With the exception of governor, the political complexion of Oregon's roster of public officials was changed little.

Oregon returns to the senate George E. Chamberlain, Democratic incumbent, and to the house W. C. Hawley and N. J. Sinnott, Republican incumbents from the First and Second districts. In the Third district C. N. McArthur, Republican, succeeds W. A. Lafferty, who ran as an independent. For governor Dr. James Withycombe, Republican, succeeds Governor Oswald West, Democrat. The legislature remains Republican.

Oregon adopted the prohibition amendment by a large majority.

LEGISLATURE IS REPUBLICAN

Five Democrats Each in North Dakota Senate and House.

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 5.—North Dakota's legislative assembly will not have more than ten Democrats, the remainder being Republicans. This is shown on returns available. Of the membership five are holdover Democratic senators. The house probably will have only four Democrats, while only one Democratic state senator has been elected.

County division was defeated in Morton county. Manning won the county seat fight in Dunn county and Beach won in Golden Valley county.

IDAHO GOVERNOR DEMOCRAT

Senator Brady and Congressman Smith Are Re-Elected.

Boise, Ida., Nov. 5.—O. M. Alexander, Democrat, was elected governor of Idaho by a plurality of about 5,000 over John M. Haines, Republican incumbent.

United States Senator James H. Brady, Republican, and Congressman Addison T. Smith, Republican, were elected. Robert McCracken, Republican, is the other member of congress to be elected from Idaho.

All parties are pledged to submit a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition.

Special to The Dispatch:—

London, Nov. 5, 11:40 A. M.—The foreign office today announced that England had declared war on Turkey. It is expected this action will be followed immediately by France, Russia, Serbia and Montenegro and possibly Belgium and Japan.

POINTS OF INTEREST, YPRES AND SOISSONS

Special to The Dispatch:—

London, Nov. 5, 2:55 P. M.—In the western arena of the great war of nations attention today is concentrated on two points, Ypres, where much of the hardest fighting of the war already has taken place, but it is expected the Germans are yet to deliver in full fury their assault in an effort to gain the French coast, and Soissons, where the Germans have gained from the French some positions captured by the British where they first crossed the River Aisne.

TWO CLAIMING ELECTION

Result of Kansas Senatorial Fight Not Decided.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 5.—Former Senator Charles Curtis, Republican, claimed to be elected to the United States senate by 12,000. His Democratic opponent, Representative George A. Neeley, said he would have a plurality of 5,000 votes. Incomplete returns left the situation in doubt.

It was certain that Arthur Capper, Republican, was elected governor probably by more than 30,000 plurality over Governor Hodges.

The Democrats have four and possibly six congressmen.

FOUR STATES VOTE DRY

Ohio and California Decide to Retain Saloons.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Four of the six states that voted Tuesday on the expiration of saloons decided, according to latest returns, to forbid the sale of alcoholic beverages in future and two voted to retain saloons.

Ohio and California kept their saloons, while Washington, Colorado, Oregon and Arizona closed theirs. Washington on first returns showed a wet majority, but later returns gave the dries a slight lead which tended to increase.

OFFICIAL COUNT NECESSARY

Senator Newlands Creeping Up on Opponent in Nevada.

Carson, Nev., Nov. 5.—Returns in Nevada brought the contest between Senator Francis G. Newlands, Democrat, and Samuel Platt, Republican, for the United States senatorship to so close a vote that it is apparent the official count must be awaited to decide definitely the winner. Platt's lead was reduced to less than 100 votes.

Governor T. L. Oddie, Republican, led Emmett Boyle, Democrat, by a narrow margin in the governorship. The election of E. E. Roberts, Republican, to congress was assured. Woman's suffrage has prevailed by a fair majority.

REPUBLICANS GAIN SENATOR

Hubert Work Evidently Is Elected in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 5.—With one-half the precincts and approximately three-fourths of the Colorado vote reported the election of the following congressional candidates is indicated:

United States senator—Hubert Work, Republican.

Congressmen—First district, Benjamin J. Hilliard, Democrat; Second, C. B. Timberlake, Republican-Progressive; Fourth, Edward T. Taylor, Democrat.

The prohibition amendment on returns from 741 precincts, including Denver complete, gave for 78,911 against 76,269. Belated returns have increased the lead of the dries.

M'GOVERN MAY BE ELECTED

Returns in Wisconsin Give Governor Lead for Seat in Senate.

Milwaukee, Nov. 5.—Belated though incomplete returns from the vote on United States senator indicate that Governor McGovern, Republican, is elected by a small plurality, ranging anywhere from 1,000 to 4,000 votes over Paul O. Husting, Democrat.

McGovern, on his latest advice, claims he will have 4,000 plurality. In any event it is apparent that the contest is very close. It seems likely that an official canvass may be necessary.

GERMAN CRUISER IS SUNK

Over Half the Crew Are Saved When Ship Hits Mine.

London, Nov. 5.—The German cruiser Yorck has struck a mine in Jade bay and sunk.

The information regarding the loss of the Yorck reached London in an Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company. It said that an official dispatch from Berlin said that the Yorck struck a mine chain blocking the entrance to Jade bay and sank.

Later reports declare that 382 men, more than half the crew, had been saved, but that the rescue work was hampered by a thick fog.

BEVERIDGE A POOR THIRD

Senator Shively Wins Three-Cornered Fight in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5.—The solid Democratic representation in congress was broken in Tuesday's election, but incomplete returns leave in doubt whether the Republicans gained more than two districts.

Senator Shively was returned to the senate, but only after a severe brush with Hugh Miller, Republican. His plurality may not exceed 20,000.

A. J. Beveridge, Progressive candidate, ran a poor third. The big slump in the Progressive vote was the feature of the election.

TURKEY IS IN WAR ZONE

Break Occurs With Four Powers.

May Join Allies in General European Conflagration.

London, Nov. 5.—Turkey definitely has broken off diplomatic relations with Great Britain, France, Russia and Serbia. Her diplomatic representatives in the capitals of these countries, acting on orders from the porte, demanded and received their passports.

Although no statement to this effect has been given out it is understood that Turkey's apology for the actions of her fleet in bombarding Russian Black sea ports and Russian ships proved unacceptable to the powers of the triple entente, in that Turkey was not prepared to accede to the demand that the German officers in her service be dismissed and the ships purchased from Germany dismantled.

The powers which the Ottoman government thus defines already are taking warlike action against Turkey. The British have destroyed Fort Akaba in Arabia, the Russians have invaded Asia Minor and the Anglo-French fleet is bombarding the forts of the Dardanelles. Now that Turkey has aligned herself among the nations at war speculation is rife as to what the other Balkan powers will do.

Greece is said to be preparing to take sides with the allies, while Bulgaria has given assurances of her neutrality. Bulgaria, however, is mobilizing for, as a Bulgarian diplomat said, "with Turkey in the area of the war, Bulgaria must be prepared for any eventualities."

German Ships Make Sortie.

Next to the Turkish situation the appearance of German warships off the coast of England is causing most of the discussion in this country. There is a disposition among naval men to believe no serious raid was intended, but that the Germans hoped to induce British warships to follow them and, by laying mines as they retired, to catch some of the bigger ships as they did the submarine D-5.

The fact that the Germans did lay mines seems to indicate to the naval experts here that the ships engaged in this work were old ones. These experts argue that Germany would not take such risks with new vessels. As if to prove their contention the experts say that the firing at the British cruiser Halcyon, which resulted in slight damage to that vessel, showed that the Germans are not armed with modern guns.

The official reports of the fighting on land recorded only advances at various points and repulses of the enemy's attacks at others. There is, in fact, no great change in the situation, according to these reports. It is announced definitely that the Germans have given up their positions along the Yser, having been driven out there by the flooded country and the gun fire of the allied troops and warships.

The Germans, however, have kept up their attack on the allied lines around Ypres, where the British troops are fighting. Although there is evidence that the new main effort of Emperor William's forces to break through at this point really has not commenced the Germans continue to bring up reinforcements and under the eyes of the emperor are preparing to make another big attempt to get through to the coast.

DUKE OF WELLINGTON'S SON AMONG KILLED.

London, Nov. 5.—A casualty list which was issued under date of Oct. 30 contains the names of twenty officers who were wounded.

Those who met death at the front include Captain Lord Richard Wellesley, second son of the fourth Duke of Wellington of the Grenadier Guards, a member of the general staff of the war office.

MAJORITY MAY BE CUT TO NINETEEN

Democrats Have Only Small Margin in House.

New York, Nov. 5.—Latest returns indicate that the Democratic majority in the house of representatives of the Sixty-fourth congress will be reduced to nineteen. The probable Democratic majority in the senate will be ten.

Democrats have elected 226 members, Republicans 196, Progressives, 10 and Socialists 1. The two missing districts are in Kansas. Returns from Topeka indicated the Democratic candidate, G. T. Helyerling in the Fifth and John R. Connelly in the Sixth, are running ahead of their Republican opponents by a narrow margin. Their election will add to the Democratic majority.

On the basis of the latest returns the senate will remain in Democratic control by a majority which probably will not be changed from the present congress. The indications are that the new senate will consist of fifty-three Democrats, forty-two Republicans and one Progressive.

CLOSE RACE IN OKLAHOMA

Democratic Candidate for Governor Leading Republican.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 5.—In the face of incomplete returns from Tuesday's election, which show Robert L. Williams, Democrat, leading in the race for governor by 7,000 votes, the Republican state headquarters claim the election of John Fields by 10,000.

James Davenport, Democrat, congressman in the First district, has been defeated for re-election by Joseph A. Gill, Republican. Gill's majority will run from 1,000 to 1,500. While the re-election of Dick T. Morgan, Republican, in the Eighth district is not conceded at Democratic headquarters incomplete returns indicate he has a comfortable majority.

DEMOCRATS GAIN SENATOR

James Phelan Is Evidently Elected in California.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Democrats gained a United States senator and Progressives a representative in Tuesday's balloting in California.

James Phelan, Democrat, will succeed in the senate George W. Perkins, a Republican, who did not seek re-election. In the Sixth congressional district J. A. Elston, Progressive, appears to have won a triangular contest for the seat vacated by Representative Joseph R. Knowland, who made a futile race for the senate.

Latest returns indicate the defeat of the anti-price fight and red light abatement measures.

China and Japan. Japan was originally civilized by way of China. Today Japan sends men of science to instruct the Chinese.

CLOSE RACE IN ILLINOIS

Sherman Wins Senatorial Contest.

Republicans Capture Many Congressional Seats.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, was re-elected to the United States senate over Roger C. Sullivan, Democrat, by an estimated plurality of 6,000 or more, according to the latest returns from Tuesday's election.

Raymond Robbins, Progressive, ran a poor third. With only 300 small rural precincts to hear from, and an average of 22 to the precinct for Sherman outside of Chicago, Sherman's downstate lead was 62,631 as against a plurality for Sullivan in Cook county of 56,599.

Sherman's gain in downstate counties was steady on the average and his increase crept up constantly. The precincts missing from the unofficial total are well scattered through counties that are divided between Republicans and Democrats in ordinary years.

In the congressional fights the Republicans made decided gains, returning Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the house, in the Eighteenth district; William B. McKinley in the Nineteenth and probably William A. Rodenberg in the Twenty-second district.

If the final count proves Rodenberg victorious the Republicans will have advanced from four to twenty members in the lower house, while the Democrats will have ten instead of twenty members in the last house.

The Democrats will control the next state senate, while the house may be deadlocked.

DEMOCRAT GOES TO SENATE

Edward S. Johnson Defeats Congressman Burke.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 1.—The surprise of the campaign to South Dakota Republicans was the defeat of Congressman Burke for United States senator. Burke conceded his defeat by E. S. Johnson, the Democratic candidate, by a majority of 2,500 and

The campaign of the Democrats was concentrated almost exclusively on the senatorship.

Returns on the legislature are far from complete. The Democrats may have an increase of a few members, but the Republicans will have a large majority in both branches. No definite returns have been received on the proposed law making a change in the holding of saloon license elections.

German Trawler Sunk by Mine. Copenhagen, Nov. 5.—A large German trawler has been destroyed by a mine south of the Danish island of Langeland in the Great Belt. The fate of her crew is not known.

Fight in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5.—The solid Democratic representation in congress was broken in Tuesday's election, but incomplete returns leave in doubt whether the Republicans gained more than two districts.

Senator Shively was returned to the senate, but only after a severe brush with Hugh Miller, Republican. His plurality may not exceed 20,000.

A. J. Beveridge, Progressive candidate, ran a poor third. The big slump in the Progressive vote was the feature of the election.

TURKEY IS IN WAR ZONEBreak Occurs With Four Powers.

May Join Allies in General
European Conflagration.

London, Nov. 5.—Turkey definitely has broken off diplomatic relations with Great Britain, France, Russia and Serbia. Her diplomatic representatives in the capitals of these countries, acting on orders from the Porte, demanded and received their passports.

Although no statement to this effect has been given out it is understood that Turkey's apology for the actions of her fleet in bombarding Russian Black sea ports and Russian ships proved unacceptable to the powers of the triple entente, in that Turkey was not prepared to accede to the demand that the German officers in her service be dismissed and the ships purchased from Germany dismantled.

The powers which the Ottoman government thus defines already are taking warlike action against Turkey. The British have destroyed Fort Akab in Arabia, the Russians have invaded Asia Minor and the Anglo-French fleet is bombarding the forts of the Dardanelles. Now that Turkey has aligned herself among the nations at war speculation is rife as to what the other Balkan powers will do.

Greece is said to be preparing to take sides with the allies, while Bulgaria has given assurances of her neutrality. Bulgaria, however, is mobilizing for, as a Bulgarian diplomat said, "with Turkey in the area of the war, Bulgaria must be prepared for any eventualities."

German Ships Make Sortie.

Next to the Turkish situation the appearance of German warships off the coast of England is causing most of the discussion in this country. There is a disposition among naval men to believe no serious raid was intended, but that the Germans hoped to induce British warships to follow them and, by laying mines as they retired, to catch some of the bigger ships as they did the submarine D-5.

The fact that the Germans did lay mines seems to indicate to the naval experts here that the ships engaged in this work were old ones. These experts argue that Germany would not take such risks with new vessels. As it to prove their contention the experts say that the firing at the British cruiser Halcyon, which resulted in slight damage to that vessel, showed that the Germans are not armed with modern guns.

The official reports of the fighting on land recorded only advances at various points and repulses of the enemy's attacks at others. There is, in fact, no great change in the situation, according to these reports. It is announced definitely that the Germans have given up their positions along the Yser, having been driven out there by the flooded country and the gun fire of the allied troops and warships.

The Germans, however, have kept up their attack on the allied lines around Ypres, where the British troops are fighting. Although there is evidence that the new main effort of Emperor William's forces to break through at this point really has not commenced the Germans continue to bring up reinforcements and under the eyes of the emperor are preparing to make another big attempt to get through to the coast.

DUKE OF WELLINGTON'S SON AMONG KILLED.

London, Nov. 5.—A casualty list which was issued under date of Oct. 30 contains the names of twenty officers who were wounded.

Those who met death at the front include Captain Lord Richard Wellesley, second son of the fourth Duke of Wellington of the Grenadier Guards, a member of the general staff of the war office.

Republicans Capture Many Congressional Seats.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, was re-elected to the United States senate over Roger C. Sullivan, Democrat, by an estimated plurality of 6,000 or more, according to the latest returns from Tuesday's election.

Raymond Robbins, Progressive, ran a poor third. With only 200 small rural precincts to hear from, and an average of 22 to the precinct for Sherman outside of Chicago, Sherman's downstate lead was 62,631 as against a plurality for Sullivan in Cook county of 56,599.

Sherman's gain in downstate counties was steady on the average and his increase crept up constantly. The precincts missing from the unofficial total are well scattered through counties that are divided between Republicans and Democrats in ordinary years.

In the congressional fights the Republicans made decided gains, returning Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the house, in the Eighteenth district; William B. McKinley in the Nineteenth and probably William A. Rodenberg in the Twenty-second district.

If the final count proves Rodenberg victorious the Republicans will have advanced from four to twenty members in the lower house, while the Democrats will have ten instead of twenty members in the last house.

The Democrats will control the next state senate, while the house may be deadlocked.

DEMOCRAT GOES TO SENATE

Edward S. Johnson Defeats Congressman Burke.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 1.—The surprise of the campaign to South Dakota Republicans was the defeat of Congressman Burke for United States senator. Burke conceded his defeat by E. S. Johnson, the Democratic candidate, by a majority of 2,500 and

The campaign of the Democrats was concentrated almost exclusively on the senatorship.

Returns on the legislature are far from complete. The Democrats may have an increase of a few members, but the Republicans will have a large majority in both branches. No definite returns have been received on the proposed law making a change in the holding of saloon license elections.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy
and luxuriant at once—No
more falling hair

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy healthy hair if you have dandruff.
This destructive scurf robs the hair
of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp;
the hair roots famish, loosen and die;
then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and
is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too
oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowl-ton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair
and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—
you must use Knowlton's Danderine.
If eventually—why not now?—Advt.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh

WAR INCIDENTS THROW LIGHT ON ON LAND AND SEA EUROPEAN STRIFE

Naval Foes Too Strong,
German Officer Cannot

Wounded Briton Wakes to Find Himself Buried
In Pile of Dead.

A LETTER from an American official in Germany tells of a conversation with Lieutenant Wed-
digen, the commander of the submarine which sank the British
cruisers Hogue, Aboukir and Cressy
and, according to reports in German papers, also the cruiser Hawke.

Lieutenant Weddigen almost spared
the Cressy, feeling strongly against sinking this last ship to the bottom
because it was the only thing to save the men from the other cruisers, who
were struggling in the water.

Lieutenant Weddigen said that through the periscope of the submarine he observed both other ships sink,
with the Cressy alongside for rescue.
The havoc appalled him and he almost determined to let the Cressy stay afloat. He was about to leave the per-iscope and retire when his second in command, who was also shocked, reminded Weddigen, "You know we have four navies fighting us."

Thereupon Weddigen went back to
the periscope, made his observation,
and sent the torpedoes which finished
the Cressy.

School Work Amid Shell Fire.

The director of the gymnasium at Altkirch (Upper Alsace) writes to the Neunkirchner Zeitung as an eye-witness of an examination held at the gymnasium while the town and the gymnasium itself were being bombarded
by French artillery. He says: "At 10 o'clock there began at the gymnasium the emergency examination (Notprüfung), which was to last till 2:30.
The building is situated on a height
near the railroad station, and the fire
from the French artillery batteries
the German position at the railroad station, passed directly over the gymnasium. A misdirected German shrapnel found its way into the Untersekunda and the physical laboratory, causing considerable destruction, but fortunately injuring no one. The examination went on quietly all the same. Of the three boys examined two passed through the fire of the hostile forces
all the way to Muelhausen, a distance
of seventeen kilometers; the third boy turned back, and I do not know what

Soldier's Tribute to Nurses.

"In my ward, where I lay, the women who minister to me and the others are renewing the miracle of evangelical charity," says a letter from a wounded French soldier. "Only this time it is not a ceremony, but a necessity. They washed us when we came—our faces, our hands, our feet—and brought us back to human semblance from underneath clots of mud."
"For eleven days now I am here.
We all are comfortable. We have the attendance of the best physicians in Havre, and we have, above all, the care of the Catholic Sisters of Charity."

"How shall I praise enough these angels on earth? Of infinite goodness are they, without sentimentality or affected sensibility. So I have seen them where death and destruction
abounded, and so I see them here—
the same. In these women one finds no romantic goodness that is in reality only selfishness projected for self satisfaction. One finds the goodness
of great souls; the goodness of a pity
that is divine."

When He Saw the Dead First.

In the same letter, written to his fiancee, the wounded Frenchman said:
"I thought of you and then I thought
of my first day of war on the crest above Flachslanden, in Alsace. I saw

there my first dead—Bavarian dragoons. My God! How big they looked sleeping on the gentle slopes! Since then I have seen so many dead my eyes are seared. Our French look so small and quiet, after they cease crying out in pain and die. Their knapsacks are little. Their blue overcoats
twist about them in such a ludicrous way! I have gotten so when I see dead men I let my eyes fall on their hands—the hands that are always stretched so wide as if they sought something. And on them I see so many little gold bands that are wedding rings!"

"Big Berthas" Fire Twenty-three and One-half Miles.

The range of the famous German 42
centimeter guns is fixed at thirty-eight kilometers (twenty-three and one-half miles) by a Norwegian engineer who witnessed the operations of the German army in Belgium and reported thereon in the Anonce Tidende of Bergen of Oct. 3.

"Approach nearer than one kilometer to the huge guns was forbidden," he wrote. "The most disagreeable feature of my sojourn in Lilleverde was
the tremendous cannon thunder, especially when in spells lasting half an hour the 42 centimeter guns found the range for their huge projectiles. The noise was like the bursting of a volcano: the whole city shook to its foundations. The range of these guns is thirty-eight kilometers. The fire is directed with the aid of captive balloons fastened to automobiles and constantly changing their positions."

When the Hindu Soldiers Charged.

A dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph, dated "Northern France," relates the first instance of the British Indian troops coming into action.

"It was at La Bassée," says the dispatch, "when by a great effort the Germans carried the British trenches
and the position looked dangerous. An avalanche of the enemy poured through,
evidently supposing that the way was open to the coast. They had a rude awakening."

"The supports of the British line
were the Indian troops, who had been thirsting to prove their quality. It was a bayonet affair, and the German advance was beaten and broken. The Indians ran through them, using the steel in their own workmanlike fashion and thrusting the foe back to re-
infantry, who awaited their coming."

"Not only did the Indians regain the lost trenches, but they pursued the
enemy down the hill until their officers
thought it prudent to recall them."

An appeal was issued by the military medical authorities at Lyons for volunteers for blood transfusion. It said:

"There are many wounded who are so exhausted from loss of blood that
the only chance of saving their lives is
by prompt transfusion from the veins
of a healthy, strong, living man or woman. Those who wish to offer their blood for such transfusions are invited to give their names to the Hotel
Dieu."

Within a short time after the appearance of the notice 120 names of volunteers had been registered, with women appearing conspicuously in the list, which included all classes of society. So prompt was the response that Dr. Carrel, pathologist of the Rockefeller institute and now head of one of the Lyons hospitals, was able to save several patients at once.

Alive In Pile of Dead.

A wounded British soldier tells a story of an experience which recalls

the grim experience of Balzac's Colonel Chabert, and which also illustrates the severity of the fighting.

This soldier said he remembered the start of a fierce fight in the trenches.
Then his mind became a blank for many hours. When he recovered his senses it was morning, and he had an awful feeling of suffocation. When he tried to move he realized that he was in a trench, buried beneath a pile of German and British dead.

The enemy had retired temporarily and eventually the soldier was able to crawl to the next line of trenches, which were occupied by his comrades.
Then he was sent to the rear.

Having Awful Time, but Happy.

Lieutenant Thomas of the Third Cheshires writes a friend he is having an awful time—"about 1,000 times worse than the infernal regions." His grub is dog biscuits and bully beef; his bed is the trenches and open fields; he is often in mud to his knees; the weather is rotten, and if he gets out alive he will be surprised. Yet he says, "I am well and happy."

Back to Days of Armor.

The Paris Journal d'Information states that the French infantry have recently gained much ground in the Argonne region through the use of steel breastplates, which, though unable to resist point blank bullets, are nevertheless impenetrable at a range which permits troops to pause before the last rush with the bayonet.

The Journal de Rennes announces that the Russian government decided to adopt the breastplate at the outbreak of the war and placed immense orders with a factory at St. Hilaire de Harcourt which had the exclusive manufacturing rights.

The French government also has now ordered large quantities and has released the reservists employed in the factory, which is busy night and day.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR
FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy
and luxuriant at once—No
more falling hair

If you care for heavy hair, that
glistens with beauty and is radiant
with life; has an incomparable soft-
Danderrine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy
healthy hair if you have dandruff.
This destructive scurf robs the hair
of its lustre, its strength and its very
life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp;
the hair roots famish, loosen and die;
then the hair falls out fast.

is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too
oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowl-ton's Danderrine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say
made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of
desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair
and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—
you must use Knowlton's Danderrine.

Naval Foes Too Strong,
German Officer Cannot Pity Drowning.

Wounded Briton Wakes to Find Himself Buried
In Pile of Dead.

A LETTER from an American official in Germany tells of a conversation with Lieutenant Wed-
digen, the commander of the
cruisers Hogue, Aboukir and Cressy
and, according to reports in German papers, also the cruiser Hawke.

the Cressy, feeling strongly against sinking this last ship to the bottom
because it was the only thing to save
the men from the other cruisers, who
were struggling in the water.

Lieutenant Weddigen said that
through the periscope of the submarine he observed both other ships sink,
with the Cressy alongside for rescue.
The havoc appalled him and he almost
determined to let the Cressy stay
afloat. He was about to leave the per-iscope, and retire when his second in command, who was also shocked, reminded Weddigen, "You know we
have four navies fighting us."

Thereupon Weddigen went back to
the periscope, made his observation,
and sent the torpedoes which finished
the Cressy.

School Work Amid Shell Fire.

The director of the gymnasium at Altkirch (Upper Alsace) writes to the Neunkirchner Zeitung as an eyewitness of an examination held at the gymnasium while the town and the
gymnasium itself were being bombarded
by French artillery. He says: "At 10 o'clock there began at the gymnasium the emergency examination (Notprüfung), which was to last till 2.30.
The building is situated on a height
near the railroad station, and the fire
the German position at the railroad station, passed directly over the gymnasium. A misdirected German shrapnel found its way into the Untersekun-
da and the physical laboratory, causing considerable destruction, but fortunately injuring no one. The examination went on quietly all the same. Of the three boys examined two passed through the fire of the hostile forces
all the way to Muelhausen, a distance
of seventeen kilometers; the third boy
turned back, and I do not know what

Soldier's Tribute to Nurses.

"In my ward, where I lay, the women who minister to me and the others are renewing the miracle of evangelical charity," says a letter from a wounded French soldier. "Only this time it is not a ceremony, but a necessity. They washed us when we came—our faces, our hands, our feet—and brought us back to human semblance from underneath clots of mud."
"For eleven days now I am here.
We all are comfortable. We have the attendance of the best physicians in Hayre, and we have, above all, the care of the Catholic Sisters of Charity."
"How shall I praise enough these angels on earth? Of infinite goodness
are they, without sentimentality or affected sensibility. So I have seen them where death and destruction
abounded, and so I see them here—
the same. In those women one finds no romantic goodness that is in reality only selfishness projected for self satisfaction. One finds the goodness
of great souls; the goodness of a pity
that is divine."

When He Saw the Dead First.

In the same letter, written to his
 fiancee, the wounded Frenchman said:
"I thought of you and then I thought
above Malschanden, in Alsace. I saw

there my first dead—Bavarian dragoons. My God! How big they looked sleeping on the gentle slopes! Since then I have seen so many dead my eyes are seared. Our French look so small and quiet after they cease crying out in pain and die. Their knap-
twist about them in such a ludicrous
way! I have gotten so when I see
hands—the hands that are always
something. And on them I see so many little gold bands that are wedding rings!"

"Big Berthas" Fire Twenty-three and One-half Miles.

The range of the famous German 42
centimeter guns is fixed at thirty-eight kilometers (twenty-three and one-half miles) by a Norwegian engineer who
witnessed the operations of the German army in Belgium and reported
thereon in the Anonce Tidende of Bergen of Oct. 3.

"Approach nearer than one kilometer
to the huge guns was forbidden," he wrote. "The most disagreeable feature of my sojourn in Lilleverde was
the tremendous cannon thunder, especially when in spells lasting half an hour the 42 centimeter guns found the
range for their huge projectiles. The noise was like the bursting of a volcano; the whole city shook to its foundations. The range of these guns is thirty-eight kilometers. The fire is directed with the aid of captive balloons fastened to automobiles and constantly changing their positions."

When the Hindu Soldiers Charged.

A dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph, dated "Northern France," relates the first instance of the British Indian troops coming into action.

"It was at La Bassée," says the dispatch, "when by a great effort the Germans carried the British trenches
and the position looked dangerous. An avalanche of the enemy poured through,
evidently supposing that the way was open to the coast. They had a rude
awakening."

"The supports of the British line
were the Indian troops, who had been thirsting to prove their quality. It was a bayonet affair, and the German
advance was beaten and broken. The Indians ran through them, using the
steel in their own workmanlike fash-
infantry, who awaited their coming."

"Not only did the Indians regain the
lost trenches, but they pursued the
enemy down the hill until their officers
thought it prudent to recall them."

An appeal was issued by the military medical authorities at Lyons for
said:

"There are many wounded who are so exhausted from loss of blood that
the only chance of saving their lives is
by prompt transfusion from the veins
of a healthy, strong, living man or woman. Those who wish to offer their blood for such transfusions are invited to give their names to the Hotel
Dieu."

New Devices Carried by the Shackleton Expedition.

UNIQUE MOTOR SLEDGES.

Two of the Five Taken on Antarctic Quest Have Air Propellers—Enough Specially Prepared Food Packed in Sausage Skins to Last Through the 1,700 Mile Trip.

Air propelled motor sledges mounted on flat runners like skis form the main reliance of the antarctic expedition headed by Sir Ernest Shackleton, which is on its way to explore the great continent that surrounds the south pole. A writer in Popular Mechanics declares that in this and many other respects the expedition is better equipped with modern devices than any previous body of polar explorers has ever been.

Details of food supply, shelter and provisions for the general health and comfort of the members of the party have been worked out with scientific care, tested in the snowfields of northern Norway and pronounced perfect.

Five motor sledges will be taken. One of these has a fifty-five horsepower gasoline engine, another a forty horsepower. These two have air propellers, but for use against head winds they are also equipped with positive drive mechanism in the form of toothed drums attached at the rear to engage the ice and snow. In the extremely low temperatures of the antarctic the snow becomes as loose as dry sand, so these sledges are mounted on flat, skid-like runners to prevent them from stalling.

Result of a Seven Day Test.

In a seven day test in Norway one of these air propelled sledges, carrying six men, towed another sledge weighing 400 pounds and carrying two men, at a speed of from fifteen to twenty miles an hour. Only a thirty horsepower motor was used instead of the larger ones that have since been installed, with which a speed of twenty-two miles an hour up a 10 per cent grade with three men on board has been made.

Two other sledges have the positive drive only and are expected to cover about fifty miles a day each as against the 75 to 100 miles of the aero sledges. The engines of these are water cooled, and the water jackets are piped to steam cooking appliances, so that food may be heated while on the march.

Scientifically Devised Rations.

The food problem of the Shackleton expedition is a particularly difficult one. Food supplies for the entire journey of 300 miles from Weddell sea to the pole and 800 miles from the pole to Ross sea must be taken along, whereas most polar explorers are able to make caches of food for use on the return journey. So a scientifically devised ration, on which the members of the party have already subsisted for days at a time, has been prepared and enough of it packed in sausage skins for easier transportation to last through the 1,700 mile trip.

Each man will receive thirty-six ounces of food daily, instead of the three pounds which is the average consumption. In this will be six ounces of lard, four ounces of sugar and two ounces of a mixture of dried milk, protein and oats. The rest of the ration consists of Brazil nuts, almonds and beechnuts mixed with oil and dried milk. The fat content of the ration is larger than the normal for temperate climates, since the low temperature will place a severe strain on the heat producing elements of the body, which can only be kept up to normal by plenty of fat foods.

WOMAN'S REALM

Waist Line is Returning to Favor in New, Natty Little Jackets Designed on Military Lines

In the modern age models the waist line was quite lost sight of, but it is returning to favor in the new natty little jackets designed on military lines. These models reach just few inches below the hips with under-arm seams cut to the figure, and curves at the waist, the basque flaring out in exaggeration of the Cosack uniform.

Braided in double breasted military effect and bordered in fur they are smarter today than the popular long coat.

And, as has been said, the waist line is shown. It is expected that this military note will be accentuated as the season develops.

The popularity of the one-piece frock becomes more noticeable every day. There are various ways of making these gowns, the majority of which are inspired by the Premet and Cheruit models.

Cheruit's gowns are all waist with the merest apology of a flounce as a skirt, but a flounce generous in breadth. Premet's skirts, on the other hand, are always full and always circular, but may be hung from a normal belt, or a deep yoke, and generally are pointed in the front and in the back at least three inches longer than at the sides.

As a rule evening gowns are trainless, for the vogue for dancing has made the trained skirt an embarrassment.

Drecol's evening frocks seem to consist of two straight panels hung from the shoulders in the back and in the front, and held in place by strings of brass or jet, or wisps of tulle.

For evening gowns the metal cloths or heavy brocades sparkling with metal threads are the most fashionable, though chiffon and net are used in many of the little dancing frocks, and velvet is shown in the majority of the handsome dinner frocks.

Mixtures of all descriptions seem to be the keynote in fabrics, but all in the dull, soft tones, deep aubers tinged with purple and trimmed with touches of old blue, or purple with gold and salmon pink.

Black is introduced in masses, not as a modest piping or a touch to give character to the costume, but as an entire waist, a girdle, or a coat with a skirt of white or contrasting color. From fashion forecast of H. W. Gosard Corset Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

If Costive, Headachy, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad—Clean Your Liver and Bowels

Get a 10-cent box now.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.—Advt.

It Really does Relieve Rheumatism

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.—Advt.

ELECTIONS TEST OF POPULARITY

Give an Insight Into Strength of Administration.

RECALLING THE CONVENTION

Woodrow Wilson the Chief Issue, and on This Democrats Hung Their Hopes—Efforts on Foot to Have Harmony Rule When Congress Meets Again Next Month.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 5.—[Special.]—If President Wilson has been much concerned in the elections he did not show it to those visitors who saw him at the White House during the last days of the canvass. It was well known, however, that he regarded the result as a test of the popularity of his administration. In fact, that had been conceded by everybody.

That was one reason why the Democrats laid such great stress upon the necessity for a Democratic victory in order to stand by the president and indorse his policies and his administration. If the president had not been the chief figure in the campaign the result might have been different. The Democrats found that the president was the best card they had, and they made the most of it.

Recalling the Convention.

Possibly for political effect, certainly with no idea that it would alter political history, there was published before the election a statement that at one critical stage of the Baltimore convention in 1912 one of the most prominent Wilson leaders was offered the nomination for vice president if he would swing his delegation away from Wilson. Still later the nomination for president was tendered him if he would desert the New Jersey man.

It is possible that various prominent men were tendered the nomination for the vice presidency under certain contingencies during the long drawn out fight. But the vice presidency never tempted any man who might be a senator or a cabinet officer. As to the presidential nomination, it should be remembered that after Clark was no longer a possibility Wilson was the man. If Wilson had been checked Bryan would have been nominated. The cards all lay in that way, and nothing the politicians could have done would have changed the course of events.

Not a Tempting Offer.

It was not a tempting offer anyway. According to the story, a group of politicians who could not nominate Harmon, Underwood or Champ Clark were willing to nominate one of the Wilson lieutenants. What makes it more "fishy" details are given of the convention proceedings, and it is said that "when suddenly New York and Illinois lined up behind the Missouri banner Bryan flung his bombshell," etc. Illinois went to the convention instructed for Clark and voted solidly for him until shrewd Roger Sullivan saw the Wilson victory in sight and deserted Clark and cast fifty-eight votes for the New Jersey candidate, which really turned the tide of the convention.

"Let Us Take Counsel Together."

Leading Democrats have expressed the hope that when congress meets in December the ruptures which marked the close of the last session will have healed and the hot blood of several earnest gentlemen cooled down. "We will take counsel together," said one of them, "and see if we can't straighten out the tangle in which the close of the session left us." One thing seems to be certain, and that is that in order to insure harmony the Democrats in congress must stick pretty close to the president.

Democratic Leader.

While the Democrats are talking harmony it might not be out of place to say that the Democratic leadership in the next house may not be settled without a fight. Claude Kitchen is next in line when Underwood goes to the senate, and the North Carolina man thinks he will win the prize, but there are quite a number of men, especially northern Democrats, who think it might be better to have one of their number made the leader. Whatever happens, it is doubtful whether the Democrats will obtain another Oscar Underwood to handle the rather tempestuous majority in the house.

Food and Clothing.

When winter stops most of the fighting in Europe and there is no real demand for what is considered contraband of war it is expected that food and clothing will be the greatest European necessity and that the United States must supply the greater portion of the demand. Information received by the department of commerce shows that this demand will probably improve business conditions in the United States.

Last Word For Shingles.

As he began to be ended. The last word of Congressman Humphrey of Washington in the house was a protest against the removal of the duty on shingles. That was about his first when the tariff bill was taken up. "Old Shingles" was a name which some of the Democratic members gave him.

EARLY DAYS AT GULL LAKE

Reminiscence of an Innate of the Stillwater Prison—Fishing Trip he Took Years Ago

The Prison Mirror contains an article from one of the inmates of the state institution in Stillwater regarding a fishing trip to northern Minnesota, including Lake Alexandria and Gull lake. The article reads:

After we had been there (Lake Alexandria) about two weeks we decided to go further north, and accordingly packed up our things and started for Gull lake, thirty miles north-east of where we were then, this being in 1896.

Besides the single seated buggy, we had a two-wheeled rig attached to the rear on which was our boat, and in the boat the various utensils for camping, and the fishing tackle. It was quite a load for one horse, and up to where we now were the roads had been very good, but from there on we felt that the roads would not be in such good shape for back in those years that part of the state was sparsely settled and in some places the roads would be nothing more than mere paths through the woods.

Well, we started on our thirty-mile drive through the woods, and as a whole we found that the roads were not so bad as we at first feared. With the exception of one piece of corduroy road about a half mile long laid over a piece of swampy land and several sandy hills, the road was passably fair, and we had no trouble until we came to the Crow Wing river—the road ran into the river and came out on the other side. As we did not dare to ford the river without some information in regards as to how to go across, and as it was about one o'clock, we decided to camp where we were for dinner. About an hour after we had ate dinner a farmer came down the road on the other side and instead of fording the river right across he came down the river and then up again, coming out where we were camped, making a sort of half circle of it. He told us to go across the same way he had done, for straight out from where the road dipped into the water was a very deep spot—a sort of large hole—and that by going down and then up again we would avoid the hole.

We crossed over safely and in a short time we arrived at Sylvan station on the Northern Pacific railroad. From there the road followed along side of the railroad tracks for about two miles and then turned due north through the woods, until we reached Gull lake, six miles distant from the railroad.

Gull lake is situated in the extreme southern end of Cass county, part of it stretching over into Crow Wing county, and is about thirteen miles northwest from Brainerd. It is a rather large lake—being fifteen miles in extreme length and about six miles wide at its widest place; and at that time it was fairly "jammed" with fish of all descriptions.

In those days I don't believe there were six or seven families living on the shores of the lake, and consequently nature's scenery had not as yet been touched by the hand of man.

The place where we decided to stop was on a peninsula at the southern end of the lake, which was homesteaded by a widow and her two sons. The oldest son worked in a saw-mill at Brainerd and the younger—a boy of fourteen—lived with her.

We stopped there seven weeks and fished to our heart's content; for it is great sport to fish in those deep-water lakes where the fish are so numerous that all you have to do is to cast your line in any place you happen to be at and draw in the fish. The fish that predominated in Gull lake were pickerel, black bass, pike, sunfish and a few crappies.

Gull lake is one of the most beautiful lakes in north central Minnesota, and I doubt not but by this time it has become something of a summer resort; for with the introduction of the automobile it is easy of access to the people of Brainerd and other surrounding towns. But whether it has developed into a resort or not, I do not know, for after I left there the latter part of Sept., 1896, I never visited its neighborhood again.

Secrets of Beautiful Hair

The first secret is a clean, healthy scalp. But don't wash it with soap. The strong, free alkali in many soaps parches the scalp and makes the hair dull, listless and brittle. Mason's Magic Shampoo cleanses the scalp thoroughly and frees it from dandruff and excessive oil. The tonic action of its vegetable oils and aniseptic stimulates the underlying glands and promotes growth of the hair, giving it softness and a beautiful, silky lustre. Hair dries quickly and evenly and is easy to do up. Use Mason's Magic Shampoo for 60 days and you'll marvel at your beautiful hair. 25¢-50¢ per package.

This is a remarkable quinine hair tonic, different from and vastly superior to all others. It positively contains no alcohol. Alcohol too quickly absorbs the natural oil of the hair and scalp, making it excessively dry and thereby creating dandruff and brittle hair. Mason's Magic Hair Tonic keeps the scalp in a healthy condition free from dandruff and by its stimulating action of the hair follicles, it is the growth of the hair. It almost immediately stops the hair from falling out and speedily creates a new and abundant growth. Money refunded if it fails. 50¢ per bottle.

New Devices Carried by the Shackleton Expedition.

Two of the Five Taken on Antarctic Quest Have Air Propellers—Enough Specially Prepared Food Packed in Sausage Skins to Last Through the 1,700 Mile Trip.

Air propelled motor sledges mounted on flat runners like skis form the main reliance of the antarctic expedition headed by Sir Ernest Shackleton, which is on its way to explore the great continent that surrounds the south pole. A writer in Popular Mechanics declares that in this and many other respects the expedition is better equipped with modern devices than any previous body of polar explorers has ever been.

Details of food supply, shelter and provisions for the general health and comfort of the members of the party have been worked out with scientific care, tested in the snowfields of northern Norway and pronounced perfect.

Five motor sledges will be taken. One of these has a fifty-five horsepower gasoline engine, another a forty horsepower. These two have air propellers, but for use against head winds they are also equipped with positive drive mechanism in the form of toothed drums attached at the rear to engage the ice and snow. In the extremely low temperatures of the antarctic the snow becomes as loose as dry sand, so these sledges are mounted on flat, skilike runners to prevent them from stalling.

In a seven day test in Norway one of these air propelled sledges, carrying six men, towed another sledge weighing 400 pounds and carrying two men, at a speed of from fifteen to twenty miles an hour. Only a thirty horsepower motor was used instead of the larger ones that have since been installed, with which a speed of twenty-two miles an hour up a 10 per cent grade with three men on board has been made.

Two other sledges have the positive drive only and are expected to cover about fifty miles a day each as against the 75 to 100 miles of the aero sledges. The engines of these are water cooled, and the water jackets are piped to steam cooking appliances, so that food may be heated while on the march.

Scientifically Devised Rations.
The food problem of the Shackleton expedition is a particularly difficult one. Food supplies for the entire journey of 900 miles from Weddell sea to the pole and 800 miles from the pole to Ross sea must be taken along, whereas most polar explorers are able to make caches of food for use on the return journey. So a scientifically devised ration, on which the members of the party have already subsisted for days at a time, has been prepared and enough of it packed in sausage skins for easier transportation to last through the 1,700 mile trip.

Each man will receive thirty-six ounces of food daily, instead of the three pounds which is the average consumption. In this will be six ounces of lard, four ounces of sugar and two ounces of a mixture of dried milk, protein and oats. The rest of the ration consists of Brazil nuts, almonds and beechnuts mixed with oil and dried milk. The fat content of the ration is larger than the normal for temperate climates, since the low temperature will place a severe strain on the heat producing elements of the body, which can only be kept up to normal by plenty of fat foods.

WOMAN'S REALM

Waist Line is Returning to Favor in New, Natty Little Jackets Designed on Military Lines

In the moyer age models the waist line was quite lost sight of, but it is returning to favor in the new natty little jackets designed on military lines. These models reach just few inches below the hips with under-arm seams cut to the figure, and curves at the waist, the basque flaring out in exaggeration of the Cossack uniform.

Braided in double breasted military effect and bordered in fur they are smarter today than the popular long coat.

And, as has been said, the waist line is shown. It is expected that this military one will be accented as the season develops.

The popularity of the one-piece frock becomes more noticeable every day. There are various ways of making these gowns, the majority of which are inspired by the Premet and Cheruit models.

Cheruit's gowns are all waist with the merest apology of a flounce as a skirt, but a flounce generous in breadth. Premet's skirts, on the other hand, are always full and always circular, but may be hung from a normal belt, or a deep yoke, and generally are pointed in the front and in the back at least three inches longer than at the sides.

As a rule evening gowns are trainless, for the vogue for dancing has made the trained skirt an encumbrance.

Drecol's evening frocks seem to consist of two straight panels hung from the shoulders in the back and in the front, and held in place by strings of tulle, or of wispis of tulle.

The newest models are sleeveless. The skirts, or at least the flounce which serves as a skirt, are noticeably fuller around the ankles.

For evening gowns the metal cloths or heavy brocades sparkling with metal threads are the most fashionable, though chiffon and net are used in many of the little dancing frocks, and velvet is shown in the majority of the handsome dinner frocks.

Mixtures of all descriptions seem to be the keynote in fabrics, but all in the dull, soft tones, deep carots tinged with purple and trimmed with touches of old blue, or purple with gold and salmon pink.

Black is introduced in masses, not as a modest piping or a touch to give character to the costume, but as an entire waist, a girdle, or a coat with a skirt of white or contrasting color. From fashion forecast of H. W. Gosard Corset Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

NEW EDISON BATTERY AID TO SUBMARINES

A Gift to Sea Fighters of All the World.

"Edison day" was recently observed generally throughout northern New Jersey, where flags were down from municipal poles. This day marked the thirty-fifth anniversary of the perfection of the incandescent light. Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams were received at the Edison laboratory at West Orange, N. J. It was with the $1,000,000 that Thomas A. Edison received for the incandescent light that he built and equipped the laboratory.

In connection with Edison's work at this laboratory an interesting fact was made known the other day, and that is that the inventor has been working for nearly two years on a special storage battery to replace the lead ones now in use in submarines.

© 1914, by American Press Association.

THOMAS A. EDISON.

The present battery generates chlorine gas when its cells become flooded with salt water, resulting in the weakening of the lungs of members of the crew and making the men easily subject to pneumonia for months after.

When naval experts told Mr. Edison some time ago of the conditions resulting from the use of the lead battery he said, "It's risk enough for the men to go under water in the submarine when properly handled, but with chlorine gas filling up the tubes it is dangerous, and this ought to be remedied."

The Edison invention is a small, compact cell, taking only one-half the space of the type of batteries now in use. It is much lighter than the old ones and produces much more energy. The same batteries may be used to operate telephones and a lighting system aboard submarines. The new battery has been tested under all conditions and circumstances and has proved entirely satisfactory. The battery will be offered to the navies of the world.

Secrets of Beautiful Hair

The first secret is a clean, healthy scalp. But don't wash it with soap. The strong, free alkali in many soaps parches the scalp and makes the hair dull, listless and brittle. Mason's Magic Shampoo cleanses the scalp thoroughly and frees it from dandruff and excessive oil. The tonic action of its vegetable oils and astringents stimulates the underlying vessels and promotes growth of the hair, giving it fullness and a beautiful, silky lustre. Hair dries quickly and evenly and is easy to do up. Use Mason's Magic Shampoo for 60 days and you'll marvel at your beautiful hair. 25c—60c per package.

This is a remarkable quinine hair tonic, different from and vastly superior to all others. It positively contains no alcohol. Alcohol too quickly absorbs the natural oil of the hair and scalp, making it excessively dry and thereby causes dandruff and brittle hair. Mason's Magic Hair Tonic keeps the scalp in a healthy condition free from dandruff and by its stimulating action of the hair follicles, it is the growth of the hair. It also immediately stops the hair from falling out and speedily creates a new and abundant growth. Money refunded if it fails. 50c per bottle.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1914.

Montana has rejected equal suffrage, there's trouble ahead for the man of the house in that state.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon has proved his ability to "come back," and he will take his seat in congress for the 20th time next March.

In Ohio the amendments to the constitution that were defeated were those affecting taxation, woman suffrage, and state-wide prohibition, the latter being defeated by 20,000.

New York joins hands with Wisconsin in having a socialist in congress, Meyer London having defeated his democratic opponent by 1,100. This is the first socialist to have been elected to congress in that state.

The project of the city of Minneapolis entering the ice business and building a municipal plant at a cost of $400,000 was endorsed at the polls at Tuesday's election by a majority of

WALLACE G. NYE

Reelected Mayor of Minneapolis Tuesday by 5,000

over 10,000. The bond proposition does not scare the people of that city.

F. F. Ellsworth, republican, was elected to congress in the Second Minnesota district, succeeding Hammond, the next governor of the state. Ellsworth won with 6,000 to his credit. In the trade the second district gets a republican congressman for a democratic governor.

Mean.

Miss Passie—Have you heard of my engagement? Miss Cutting—No—er—who's the plucky man?—Judge.

Increases Your Wage Earnings --False Economy Decreases the Wages

Miners, Mechanics, Farmers, Salespeople and Day Laborers should all buy the best quality they possibly can. It is the buying of cheap bargain shoes that causes one to buy so often. The good quality shoe or suit or hat will outwear and give more lasting satisfaction than two and often three of the real cheap bargain store kind. Such buying by the hard working man or woman is false economy. This compulsory sale of the H. W. Linnemann stock of QUALITY Merchandise offers you the best well known and dependable brands of clothing, shoes, hats, caps, underwear, sweaters, mackinaws, wool hosiery, gloves, mittens and everything in winter apparel for men and boys at prices way below the regular. Many are buying their winter outfit this week and saving from $3.50 to $8.00 on each suit or overcoat. No house this side of Chicago is selling such magnificent garments, the very latest in style and fit, the best of materials, at such no-profit prices as we are doing this week. This is no ordinary sale, but a serious sacrifice for the reason that ready cash is required and must be realized. Come and get your share while these unmatchable low prices prevail. It is not to make money but to get money that this sacrifice is being done on one of the finest clothing and shoe stocks in Minnesota. You all know "Henry" W. Linnemann and his Front Street Store, and you also know that if Linnemann says it's so—it's so!

POLITICAL SIDE LIGHTS

P. H. McGarry defeated his opponent in the Cass-Itasca district and has been elected to the state senate. Leonard H. Nord defeated F. A. Wilson for the state senate in the Beltrami district. Wilson is publisher of the Bemidji Sentinel and the fight has been a fierce one.

Gov. C. A. Gillman was elected to the house from Stearns county. He was speaker of the house many years ago, later lieutenant governor and president of the senate. He is 82 years old, though active and vigorous.

Farley Dare was elected representative from Cass county. The people "were there for Dare."

Paul Felix was elected sheriff of Morrison county defeating E. S. Tanner. Alfred Stoll was elected clerk of court, defeating Elmer Kling.

The Minnesota congressmen elected are:

First—Sydney Anderson, republican, re-elected.

Second—F. E. Ellsworth, probably elected in Hammond's district.

Fourth—Carl C. Van Dyke, democrat, defeats Congressman Fred C. Stevens.

Fifth—George R. Smith, republican, re-elected.

Sixth—C. A. Lindbergh, republican.

Seventh—A. J. Volstead, republican, re-elected without opposition.

Eighth—Clarence B. Miller, republican, re-elected.

Ninth—Halver Steenerson, republican, re-elected without opposition.

OSSISPEE ITEMS

Arthur Feibend returned to Backus Saturday, after spending a few days at A. C. Taylor's.

Mrs. Will Borden is suffering with an abscess on her face.

Little Thelma Lougee is on the sick list this week.

Grandma Stangel, who has been seriously ill is reported as getting along nicely.

The dance at Ossipee Saturday night was well attended and a good time reported.

The Stachel and Chatter club met last Saturday with Mrs. Clarence Greene. The afternoon was spent in sewing and embroidery after which a lunch was served.

Mr. McIntyre spent a few days this week with W. H. Dunham, while on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Andrew Stangel was sick a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foote and children of Mission were visiting at the Stangel and Mills homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson and son Roy, Mr. Vergin, Misses Jennie and Viola Porter, Lawrence and Elizabeth Koering and C. W. Koering and Mr. Lively of Brainerd spent Sunday at the Lougee homes.

Miss Aurelia Miller returned home Monday after an absence of two months spent in Minneapolis and Detroit, Michigan. Miss Miller also enjoyed a trip through the Great Lakes.

Lulu Durham is suffering from a badly sprained ankle received Tuesday, as she jumped from the buggy as the horse she was driving ran away when a strap broke letting the buggy hit against his heels.

MAE.

Birds Blamed For Hog Cholera. Wild pigeons and other birds are blamed by the farmers in three counties surrounding Joliet, Ill. for the loss of more than $75,000 worth of hogs and the spread of hog cholera over that part of the country. Farmers are adopting desperate measures to check the disease. Parties of hunters have been organized for the purpose of shooting the pigeons, which fly from farm to farm, spreading the germs of the epidemic with great rapidity. "Birds are one of the most prolific sources of infection for hogs," said Dr. Houck of the United States bureau of animal industry.

BARROWS NEWS

Local Farmers Holding Their Rye for Higher Prices—Mining News of Vicinity

Barrows, Minn., Nov. 6.—C. P. Meyers, secretary of the Barrows Mining Co., was in town the first of the week looking over their property.

The candidates before the election were coming in thick and fast. One could see one almost any time of the day going up the street.

The school house work has commenced, and they are now at the concrete work in the basement. The excavating has been completed.

W. M. Seafeld of Ironton, was here the other day looking after his drills in sections 16 and 9. All are reported to be in ore.

A lot more ore has been discovered in the property of the Barrows Mining Co. than they expected to find when they commenced to check drill the property.

All the drillers are now stopping here at the Anderson hotel and they have discontinued to ride to Brainerd on their wheels.

L. Bailey is making some improvements on Barrows avenue this week.

There were 78 votes cast at the general election here Nov. 3rd.

Steve Perlinger, one of the progressive farmers of the community, is marketing his corn crop this year.

A number of the local farmers are holding their large rye for spring market and higher prices.

S. Momb, vice president of the Barrows Mining Co., was looking after some of his interests here this week.

R. R. Wise, of Brainerd, was a caller this week.

R. C. Klinkenberg has just received a car of hard coal for the winter use, and is selling out of the car to the people here.

T. Perron, of St. Mathias, is doing some hauling for the new school.

Hand-me-downs.

"I have to wear father's old clothes. I don't suppose you girls have any troubles like those."

"Yes, we do," said the girl. "I have to wear mother's old hair."—Kansas City Journal.

COURAGE IN WAR

What war teaches—as well as business life

Courage in war or business is born of good pure blood. Pure blood is the greatest blessing mankind can have.

Millions of people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, free from alcohol or narcotics, does just what is stated above, simply because it banishes from the blood all poison and impure matter. It is the world's great Blood Purifier; so enters joints, dissolves the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

If you have indigestion, sluggish liver, backache over the kidneys, nasal or other Catarrh, unsteady nerves or unsightly skin, get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.

A GREAT BOOK EVERY Woman SHOULD HAVE

If you will pay the mailing charges, Doctor Pierce will send you his cloth bound book of over 1,000 pages newly revised with color plates and illustrations.

Everyone should read and have it in case of accident or sickness in the home.

Treats of so many subjects in such an interesting manner that knowledge of the human body is quickly and easily attained by all who read the book.

THOUGH YOU ESCAPE WITH YOUR LIFE

If fire occurs at your place, you will not find it sweet if the flames leave you penniless. All your remaining days will be filled with regret that you hadn't taken out insurance when you could. Fire is just as likely to happen to you as to anybody else. Be wise and have us insure you today. Then fire will not spell ruin for you.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1914.

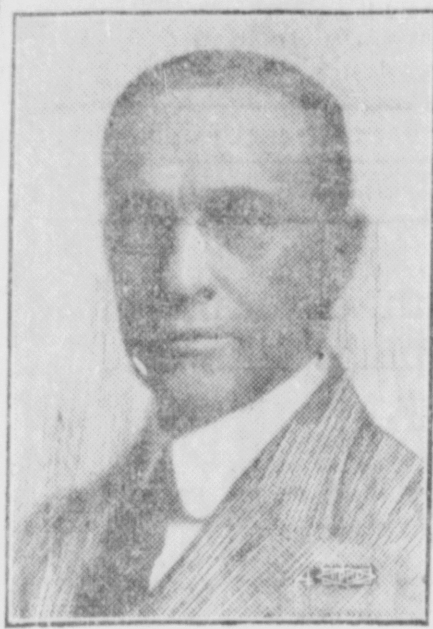

Montana has rejected equal suffrage, there's trouble ahead for the man of the house in that state.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon has proved his ability to "come back," and he will take his seat in congress for the 29th time next March.

In Ohio the amendments to the constitution that were defeated were those affecting taxation, woman suffrage, and state-wide prohibition, the latter being defeated by 20,000.

New York joins hands with Wisconsin in having a socialist in congress, Meyer London having defeated his democratic opponent by 1,100. This is the first socialist to have been elected to congress in that state.

The project of the city of Minneapolis entering the ice business and building a municipal plant at a cost of $400,000 was endorsed at the polls at Tuesday's election by a majority of over 10,000. The bond proposition does not scare the people of that city.

F. F. Ellsworth, republican, was elected to congress in the Second Minnesota district, succeeding Hammond, the next governor of the state. Ellsworth won with 6,000 to his credit. In the trade the second district gets a republican congressman for a democratic governor.

Increases Your Wage Earnings --False Economy Decreases the Wages

Miners, Mechanics, Farmers, Seafarers and Day Laborers should all buy the best quality they possibly can. It is the buying of cheap bargain shoes that causes one to buy so often. The good quality shoe or suit or hat will outwear and give more lasting satisfaction than two and often three of the real cheap bargain store kind. Such buying by the hard working man or woman is false economy. This compulsory sale of the H. W. Linnemann stock of QUALITY Merchandise offers you the best well known and dependable brands of clothing, shoes, hats, caps, underwear, sweaters, mackinaws, wool hosiery, gloves, mittens and everything in winter apparel for men and boys at prices way below the regular. Many are buying their winter outfit this week and saving from $3.50 to $8.00 on each suit or overcoat. No house this side of Chicago is selling such magnificent garments, the very latest in style and fit, the best of materials, at such no-profit prices as we are doing this week. This is no ordinary sale, but a serious sacrifice for the reason that ready cash is required and must be realized. Come and get your share while these unmatched low prices prevail. It is not to make money but to get money that this sacrifice is being done on one of the finest clothing and shoe stocks in Minnesota. You all know "Henry" W. Linnemann and his Front Street Store, and you also know that if Linnemann says it's so—it's so!

POLITICAL SIDE LIGHTS

P. H. McGarry defeated his opponent in the Cass-Itasca district and has been elected to the state senate. Leonard H. Nord defeated F. A. Wilson for the state senate in the Beltrami district. Wilson is publisher of the Bemidji Sentinel and the fight has been a fierce one.

Gov. C. A. Gillman was elected to the house from Stearns county. He was speaker of the house many years ago, later lieutenant governor and president of the senate. He is 82 years old, though active and vigorous.

Farley Dare was elected representative from Cass county. The people "were there for Dare."

Paul Felix was elected sheriff of Morrison county defeating E. S. Tanner. Alfred Stoll was elected clerk of court, defeating Elmer Kling.

The Minnesota congressmen elected are:

First—Sydney Anderson, republican, re-elected.

Fifth—George R. Smith, republican, re-elected.

Sixth—C. A. Lindbergh, republican.

Seventh—A. J. Volstead, republican, re-elected without opposition.

Eighth—Clarence B. Miller, republican, re-elected.

OSSISPEE ITEMS

Arthur Feierabend returned to Backus Saturday, after spending a few days at A. C. Taylor's.

Mrs. Will Borden is suffering with an abscess on her face.

Grandma Stangel, who has been seriously ill is reported as getting along nicely.

The dance at Ossipee Saturday night was well attended and a good time reported.

The Stiche and Chatter club met last Saturday with Mrs. Clarence Greene. The afternoon was spent in sewing and embroidery after which a lunch was served.

Mr. McIntyre spent a few days this week with W. H. Dunham, while on a hunting trip.

Mrs. Audrey Stangel was sick a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foote and children of Mission were visiting at the Stangel and Mills homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson and son Roy, Mr. Verginiss, Misses Jennie and Viola Porter, Lawrence and Elizabeth Koering and C. W. Koering and Mr. Lively of Brainerd spent Sunday at the Lougee homes.

Miss Aurelia Miller returned home Monday after an absence of two months spent in Minneapolis and Detroit, Michigan. Miss Miller also enjoyed a trip through the Great Lakes.

Lulu Durham is suffering from a badly sprained ankle received Tuesday, as she jumped from the buggy as the horse she was driving ran away when a strap broke letting the buggy hit against his heels.

MAE.

Birds Blamed For Hog Cholera.

Wild pigeons and other birds are blamed by the farmers in three counties surrounding Joliet, Ill., for the loss of more than $75,000 worth of hogs and the spread of hog cholera over that part of the country. Farmers are adopting desperate measures to check the disease. Parties of hunters have been organized for the purpose of shooting the pigeons, which fly from farm to farm, spreading the germs of the epidemic with great rapidity. "Birds are one of the most prolific sources of infection for hogs," said Dr. Houck of the United States bureau of animal industry.

Local Farmers Holding Their Rye for Higher Prices—Mining News of Vicinity

Barrows, Minn., Nov. 6.—C. P. Meyers, secretary of the Barrows Mining Co., was in town the first of the week looking over their property.

The candidates before the election were coming in thick and fast. One could see one almost any time of the day going up the street.

The school house work has commenced, and they are now at the concrete work in the basement. The excavating has been completed.

W. M. Seafeld of Ironton, was here the other day looking after his drills in sections 16 and 9. All are reported to be in ore.

A lot more ore has been discovered in the property of the Barrows Mining Co. than they expected to find when they commenced to check drill the property.

All the drillers are now stopping here at the Anderson hotel and they have discontinued to ride to Brainerd on their wheels.

L. Bailey is making some improvements on Barrows avenue this week. There were 78 votes cast at the general election here Nov. 3rd.

A number of the local farmers are holding their large rye for spring market and higher prices.

S. Momb, vice president of the Barrows Mining Co., was looking after some of his interests here this week.

R. R. Wise, of Brainerd, was a caller this week.

R. C. Klinkenberg has just received a car of hard coal for the winter use, and is selling out of the car to the people here.

T. Perron, of St. Mathias, is doing some hauling for the new school.

COURAGE IN WAR

What war teaches—as well as business life

Millions of people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves stronger and steadier and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, free from alcohol or narcotics, does just what is stated above, simply because it banishes from the blood all poisons and impure matter. It is the world's great Blood Purifier; so enters joints, dissolves the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

If you have indigestion, sluggish liver, backache over the kidneys, nasal or other Catarrh, unsteady nerves or unsightly skin, get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.

A GREAT BOOK EVERY

Woman SHOULD HAVE

If you will pay the mailing charges, Doctor Pierce will send you his cloth bound book of over 1,000 pages newly revised with color plates and illustrations.

Everyone should read and have it in case of accident or sickness in the home.

Send 20 cents in stamps for mailing charges to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and enclose this notice.—Adv't.

THOUGH YOU ESCAPE

WITH YOUR LIFE

If fire occurs at your place, you will not find it sweet if the flames leave you penniless. All your remaining days will be filled with regret that you hadn't taken out insurance when you could. LEE CARRIES CITY AND COUNTY

Election Contests are Now Practically Settled and Many Surprises are Found in Figures

GARDNER IS ELECTED SENATOR

Two Precincts Have Failed to Make Returns but the Vote of Both Will be Less than 25

The returns from all the precincts in Crow Wing are now in the hands of County Auditor Smart excepting Little Pine and Wolford and these precincts will not cast a total of 25 votes together. The inability to get these two precincts prevents the publishing of practically an official vote of the county today. A table will be found elsewhere in this issue of the vote of the precincts received, but the figures are not absolutely correct as they have not been verified by the auditor's copy, and if any discrepancies appear they will be corrected tomorrow or when the official count is made.

From the returns at hand Wm. E. Lee carried the city by 33 votes and the county by 196 over W. S. Hammond, the vote standing Lee 1,268, Hammond 1,072.

The congressional vote as figured unofficially is: Lindbergh, 1791; DuBois, 795; Thomason, 692; Sharkey, 255.

For senator the vote in Morrison and Crow Wing counties, with two small precincts in the latter and three in the former to hear from, gives Geo. H. Gardner a majority over C. D. Johnson of 232. The Crow Wing county vote is: Gardner, 1,568; Johnson, 1,337. Morrison county, Gardner, 1,791; Johnson, 1,590.

For representative at large Bouck has a lead of 787 over Young, the Crow Wing county vote being, Bouck, 1,742; Young, 1,316. Morrison county, Bouck, 1,959; Young, 1,589.

For representative in Crow Wing county Edw. Syverson is elected over W. A. Fleming by 582 majority.

For county auditor Charles Mahlum is elected over H. D. Treglawby by between 90 and 100 votes, Mahlum 1,678, Treglawby 1,583.

A. G. Trommald wins over C. P. Eastman for register of deeds by a vote of 1966 to 860.

Claus Theorin was elected sheriff over Erick Kronberg, the vote standing Theorin, 2,213; Kronberg, 1,929.

For clerk of court the vote as counted gives W. A. M. Johnston, 2,296; W. V. Turcotte, 987.

J. T. Sanborn was re-elected judge of probate over W. W. Bane by a vote of 2,238 to 987.

S. F. Alderman was elected county attorney over G. S. Swanson by a majority of 109, without the missing precincts, the vote standing Alderman 1,750, Swanson 1,641.

The contest for coroner is still in doubt, the figures to date being, Nelson, 1,589; McNamara, 1,570. This gives Nelson 19 to the good on the face of it with the two precincts to be heard from.

For county commissioner, Ludwig Matthison won over C. A. Kreech in the Second District by 49 votes, Matthison 316, Kreech 267.

Edward Crust was elected in the Fourth district over H. Poppenberg by a vote of 368 to 319, Crust's majority being 58.

Against the court house bonds, 1,000, for the bonds $32.

In Morrison county Lindbergh received 1,974; DuBois, 1,297; Thomason, 238; Sharkey, 265.

Chicago Yards Will Remain Closed for Nine Days.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Chicago Union stock yards, the largest cattle market in the world, which has been in continuous business since 1865, was ordered closed for several days because of the prevalence of the hoof and mouth disease among cattle.

The closing order will continue until the opening of business on Nov. 16. This makes the cessation of business at the yards cover nine days.

GERMANY PRAISES AMERICAN SURGEONS.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The American hospitals at Gielwitz and Cassel are doing such satisfactory work that the German government is about to request that three more American surgeons be sent to Germany.

The German surgeons speak in terms of the highest appreciation of the skill of the American surgeons.

EAGLES ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT

Will Celebrate Thanksgiving Eve on Wednesday, November 2 with a Big Banquet

FOR MEMBERS AND FAMILIES

Signalizes also the Twelfth Anniversary of the Local Order, a Great Social Event

The Eagles are preparing for their annual entertainment which signalizes the twelfth anniversary of Brainerd Aerie, No. 287, Fraternal Order of Eagles. A banquet will be given to which members and their families are invited and it will be necessary to have it in a large hall to seat them all. The place has not been decided, but it will presumably be Gardner hall or the Citizens State Bank hall.

Local speakers will revel in oratory. There will be songs and musical selections and on the whole it will be one of these social events for which the Eagles are famous. A dance will conclude the entertainment.

The committee on arrangements includes F. E. Little, Postmaster H. P. Dunn, S. R. Adair, P. T. Brown, Giles O'Brien and Henry Krause. At a recent meeting of the Eagles several new members were initiated, showing the local aerie is experiencing a health growth.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Little Falls High School Team Plays Brainerd at Koering Grounds November 7

The Brainerd high school football team will meet the Little Falls eleven at the Koering grounds at 2:30 Saturday, Nov. 7th. Brainerd was defeated in the last game with the down river team but the local boys have been working hard and are in much better form for the return game than they were in the first.

Both sides are confident they will win and a real football game is assured. All the football fans in the city should be out to this game if they want to see something fast in the line of football.

The lineup for Saturday: Norquist c, Falconer or Hagberg lf, Mahlum rf, Eckholm lt, Warner rt, Fall or Reis lb, Blake re, Carlson rb, Koop lb, Day fb, Trent (Capt.) qb.

CONFERENCE AND SCHOOL OF METHODS

Walter J. Smith, of Brainerd, Missionary of the Sunday School Union, in Attendance

Walter J. Smith, missionary of the American Sunday School Union, returned Tuesday from Fargo, N. D., where he and the other missionaries of the northern district comprising Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana attended a conference and school of methods which lasted seven days from October 27 to November 3. There were thirty missionaries present.

The conference proved a great uplift, both to the missionaries and the people of Fargo, who had the privilege of attending any or all of the sessions. The First Baptist church could scarcely accommodate the great crowds that came out to see and hear Prof. McConaughy's illustrated lecture on the Old Testament Heroes of Faith. Great credit is due the district superintendent, Rev. John O. Ferris, who had the conference in charge and who so thoughtfully planned in every detail for the pleasure and comfort of the missionaries.

Mr. Smith reports that from an educational and inspirational standpoint the Fargo conference stands at the head of any he has ever attended. The principal addresses were delivered by representatives of the society. These included:

"Power of Personal Touch," by Rev. G. P. Williams, D. D., secretary of Missions, Philadelphia.

"The Bible in the Home, Family Worship" by Rev. W. W. Johnston, D. D., Superintendent of Lakes District, Chicago, Ill.

"One Hour with the Author of Our Teachers Training Course," by Prof. Jas. McConaughy, managing editor Union Publications, Philadelphia.

"Personality in Sunday School Missionary Work," by Rev. Joseph Wells, superintendent of Western District, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Leadership" by Rev. John O. Ferris, District Superintendent Northern District, Minneapolis.

Among the pleasant features of the conference was a banquet given the missionaries by the Fargo Commercial club, also an automobile ride on Tuesday morning taking in several points of interest including the Agricultural College.

On Wednesday morning the missionaries returned to their respective fields where they will endeavor to put into practice many of the rich ideas and good suggestions received at the conference. The people of Fargo also expressed themselves as being richly blessed by having such a company of Godly wholesome men meet in their city.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to express my thanks to the people of Crow Wing county who have honored me by re-electing me to the position of clerk of the district court and will endeavor, as in the past, by strict application to the business of the office, to continue to merit the approval of all.

DISPATCH ADS PAY—TRY ONE

LARGE WAR TAX IS NOW DUE

Federal Levy Throughout Northwest will Yield a Large Revenue to the Emergency Fund

BANKS, THEATRES, POOL HALLS

And Various Others Including Those Selling Tobacco will be Included in the List.

The war tax is on and those who are to contribute to the war tax fund on account of the democratic emergency war tax bill which has become a law will soon be called upon by internal revenue collectors. The whole northwest will pay heavy tribute and the amount realized will run into the hundreds of thousands. Other parts of the country will also be taxed as their liability under the bill is shown. Duluth alone expects that the contribution from that city will amount to $25,000.

Deputy internal revenue collectors have already received notice to see that all license money is paid in by November 30 under penalty of federal prosecution, a taxable list of business enterprises affected by the emergency revenue bill accompanying their instructions.

Billiard and pool halls are required to pay a tax of $5 a table, and another big source of revenue will be the confectionery stores, retail cigar stores, saloons and other places where cigars and tobacco are sold. Places selling $200 worth of cigars a year must pay a tax of $4.80. Commission firms must pay $20 each.

Brokers will pay $30 each, and pawnbrokers are taxed. Long distance telephone calls will be taxed from one to five cents, and telegrams will be given the benefit of a war stamp. In addition all public documents, bonds, mortgages and deeds of transfer will bear their share of the war tax burden. Sleeping car tickets will also be taxed.

TO THE VOTERS OF CROW WING COUNTY

Thanks

At the Columbia

A show for the tastes of every one is the one given today at the Columbia. The latest war news from Belgium and many views will again be the drawing card. Mary Pickford, as usual, will be seen in a one act play, "The Two Brothers." Two other splendid dramas will complete a most worthy evening's entertainment.

At the Grand

Tonight only the European war slides will be shown. They are authentic, direct from the American Press Association. "The Jackpot Club" is our feature story tonight. It is one of the strongest problem dramas ever written. The comedy is a Nestor, "Fruits and Floyers." A scream from start to finish.

Tomorrow and Saturday the Grand features a Victor comedy, "Elsie's Uncle." That "Three of a Kind" could ever make a "pair" seems impossible, but did it ever occur to you that the three instead of being cards might be three flesh and blood men. This is a comedy that will hold your interest. "Little Mary" will be before you Friday and Saturday also in "Sweetheart Days."

Deerwood Hunters Preparing for the Big Game Season—Deerwood Band Re-Organized

Deerwood, Minn., Nov. 5.—Deerwood men serving on the grand jury at Brainerd are John A. Oberg and B. Magoffin, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mussey are the parents of a baby boy.

The roast chicken supper given by the Catholic ladies netted almost $60.

The election campaign resulted in a whirl of business for the range papers, and heavy advertising was done by all the candidates.

Ray Vinje, formerly of Madison, Wis., and now of Minneapolis, was a Deerwood visitor this week.

Thomas Keating is making a reputation as one of the best road builders in the country. He has so improved streets in the village and roads leading to Deerwood that his work is receiving favorable mention from every visitor.

P. A. Gough has returned from a business trip to Minneapolis.

B. Magoffin Jr., Culver Adams and Durand Hall have returned from a trip up the M. & N. railway where they were hunting geese.

Deerwood hunters are preparing for the big game season. Last year when many ninruds traveled a hundred miles to get a deer, a Deerwood man shot one just a mile from town and heading for Deerwood, the animal died near the village limits and the hunter saved a big drayage bill.

Frank J. Oberg, who has large interests on the Cuyuna iron range, has returned to Minneapolis.

Gust Franzen was in Brainerd on business matters last week.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church held a food sale last Saturday which was very successful. A light lunch was served after the sale.

Water will soon be turned on in Deerwood's waterworks system and will be made the occasion of a celebration.

The sewer system of Deerwood is nearing completion.

A large number of cement sidewalks have been laid in the village and the new curbing put in has also increased the attractiveness of the streets.

The Deerwood band is to be re-organized and a committee including Manager Potts, Attorney H. E. Peterson and Homer F. Mussey is drawing up a constitution and by-laws.

LEE CARRIES CITY AND COUNTY

Election Contests are Now Practically Settled and Many Surprises are Found in Figures

GARDNER IS ELECTED SENATOR

Two Precincts Have Failed to Make Returns but the Vote of Both Will be Less than 25

The returns from all the precincts in Crow Wing are now in the hands of County Auditor Smart excepting Little Pine and Wolford and these precincts will not cast a total of 25 votes together. The inability to get these two precincts prevents the publishing of practically an official vote of the county today. A table will be found elsewhere in this issue of the vote of the precincts received, but the figures are not absolutely correct as they have not been verified by the auditor's copy, and if any discrepancies appear they will be corrected tomorrow or when the official count is made.

From the returns at hand Wm. E. Lee carried the city by 33 votes and the county by 196 over W. S. Hammond, the vote standing Lee 1,268, Hammond 1,072.

The congressional vote as figured unofficially is: Lindbergh, 1791; DuBois, 795; Thomason, 692; Sharkey, 255.

For senator the vote in Morrison and Crow Wing counties, with two small precincts in the latter and three in the former to hear from, gives Geo. H. Gardner a majority over C. D. Johnson of 232. The Crow Wing county vote is: Gardner, 1,568; Johnson, 1,337. Morrison county, Gardner, 1,791; Johnson, 1,599.

For representative at large Bouch has a lead of 787 over Young, the Crow Wing county vote being, Bouch, 1,742; Young, 1,316. Morrison county, Bouch, 1,959; Young, 1,589.

For representative in Crow Wing county Edw. Syverson is elected over W. A. Fleming by 582 majority.

For county auditor Charles Mahlum is elected over H. D. Treglawby by between 99 and 100 votes, Mahlum 1,678, Treglawby 1,583.

A. G. Trommald wins over C. P. Eastman for register of deeds by a vote of 1966 to 860.

Claus Theorin was elected sheriff over Erick Kronberg, the vote standing Theorin, 2,213; Kronberg, 1,929.

For clerk of court the vote as counted gives W. A. M. Johnston, 2,296; W. V. Turcotte, 987.

J. T. Sanborn was re-elected judge of probate over W. W. Bane by a vote of 2,238 to 987.

S. P. Alderman was elected county attorney over G. S. Swanson by a majority of 109, without the missing precincts, the vote standing Alderman 1,759, Swanson 1,641.

The contest for coroner is still in doubt, the figures to date being, Nelson, 1,589; McNamara, 1,570. This gives Nelson 19 to the good on the face of it with the two precincts to be heard from.

For county commissioner, Ludwig Matthison won over C. A. Kreech in the second district by 49 votes, Matthison 316, Kreech 267.

Edward Crust was elected in the Fourth district over H. Poppenberg by a vote of 368 to 319, Crust's majority being 58.

Against the court house bonds, 1,000, for the bonds 832.

Against the jail bonds, 989, for the bonds, 867.

In Morrison county Lindbergh received 1,974; DuBois, 1,297; Thomason, 238; Sharkey, 265.

Chicago Yards Will Remain Closed for Nine Days.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Chicago Union stock yards, the largest cattle market in the world, which has been in continuous business since 1865, was ordered closed for several days because of the prevalence of the hoof and mouth disease among cattle.

The closing order will continue until the opening of business on Nov. 16. This makes the cessation of business at the yards cover nine days.

GERMANY PRAISES AMERICAN SURGEONS.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The American hospitals at Gleiwitz and Cassel are doing such satisfactory work that the German government is about to request that three more American surgeons be sent to Germany.

The German surgeons speak in terms of the highest appreciation of the skill of the American surgeons.

Foot of calendar: W. E. Milberry vs Henry Jair.

Stricken from calendar, duplicate: No. 16, Mary Bertram vs Haroce Humphrey.

In process of settlement: Gabriel Burgover and Jacob H. Winterfield, co-partners, vs A. A. Davis.

Jury issues: Marie Heath vs C. A. Nelson, H. C. Zierke and Ole Benson.

Defendant moved for judgment on pleadings: Edgar B. Rehuke as trustee, et al. vs John R. Leak, et al.; Jack Maki vs Joseph E. McCoy.

EAGLES ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT

Will Celebrate Thanksgiving Eve on Wednesday, November 2 with a Big Banquet

FOR MEMBERS AND FAMILIES

Signalizes also the Twelfth Anniversary of the Local Order, a Great Social Event

The Eagles are preparing for their annual entertainment which signalizes the twelfth anniversary of Brainerd Aerie, No. 287, Fraternal Order of Eagles. A banquet will be given to which members and their families are invited and it will be necessary to have it in a large hall to seat them all. The place has not been decided, but it will presumably be Gardner hall or the Citizens State Bank hall.

Local speakers will revel in oratory. There will be songs and musical selections and on the whole it will be one of these social events for which the Eagles are famous. A dance will conclude the entertainment.

The committee on arrangements includes F. E. Little, Postmaster H. P. Dunn, S. R. Adair, P. T. Brown, Giles O'Brien and Henry Krause.

At a recent meeting of the Eagles several new members were initiated, showing the local aerie is experiencing a health growth.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Little Falls High School Team Plays Brainerd at Koering Grounds November 7

The Brainerd high school football team will meet the Little Falls eleven at the Koering grounds at 2:30 Saturday, Nov. 7th. Brainerd was defeated in the last game with the down river team but the local boys have been working hard and are in much better form for the return game than they were in the first.

Both sides are confident they will win and a real football game is assured. All the football fans in the city should be out to this game if they want to see something fast in the line of football.

The lineup for Saturday: Norquist c, Falconer or Hagberg lf, Mahlum rg, Eckholm lt, Warner lt, Fall or Reis le, Blake re, Carlson rb, Koop lb, Day fb, Trent (Capt.) qb.

CONFERENCE AND SCHOOL OF METHODS

Walter J. Smith, of Brainerd, Missionary of the Sunday School Union, in Attendance

Walter J. Smith, missionary of the American Sunday School Union, returned Tuesday from Fargo, N. D., where he and the other missionaries of the northern district comprising Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana attended a conference and school of methods which lasted seven days from October 27 to November 3. There were thirty missionaries present.

The conference proved a great uplift, both to the missionaries and the people of Fargo, who had the privilege of attending any or all of the sessions. The First Baptist church could scarcely accommodate the great crowds that came out to see and hear Prof. McCaughy's illustrated lecture on the Old Testament Heroes of Faith. Great credit is due the district superintendent, Rev. John O. Ferris, who had the conference in charge and who so thoughtfully planned in every detail for the pleasure and comfort of the missionaries.

Mr. Smith reports that from an educational and inspirational standpoint the Fargo conference stands at the head of any he has ever attended. The principal addresses were delivered by representatives of the society. These included:

"Power of Personal Touch," by Rev. G. P. Williams, D. D., secretary of Missions, Philadelphia.

"The Bible in the Home, Family Worship" by Rev. W. W. Johnston, D. D., Superintendent of Lakes District, Chicago, Ill.

"One Hour with the Author of Our Teachers Training Course," by Prof. Jas. McCaughy, managing editor Union Publications, Philadelphia.

"Personality in Sunday School Missionary Work," by Rev. Joseph Wells, superintendent of Western District, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Leadership" by Rev. John O. Ferris, District Superintendent Northern District, Minneapolis.

Discussions on different phases of the work were opened each day by the missionaries. Mr. Smith led the following discussions, "Missionary Letters," "Monthly Reports," and "The General Administration of Our Work."

Among the pleasant features of the conference was a banquet given the missionaries by the Fargo Commercial club, also an automobile ride on Tuesday morning taking in several points of interest including the Agricultural College.

On Wednesday morning the missionaries returned to their respective fields where they will endeavor to put into practice many of the rich ideas and good suggestions received at the conference. The people of Fargo also expressed themselves as being richly blessed by having such a company of Godly wholesome men meet in their city.

LARGE WAR TAX IS NOW DUE

Federal Levy Throughout Northwest will Yield a Large Revenue to the Emergency Fund

And Various Others Including Those Selling Tobacco will be Included in the List.

The war tax is on and those who are to contribute to the war tax fund on account of the democratic emergency war tax bill which has become a law will soon be called upon by internal revenue collectors. The whole northwest will pay heavy tribute and the amount realized will run into the hundreds of thousands. Other parts of the country will also be taxed as their liability under the bill is shown. Duluth alone expects that the contribution from that city will amount to $25,000.

Deputy internal revenue collectors have already received notice to see that all license money is paid in by November 30 under penalty of federal prosecution, a taxable list of business enterprises affected by the emergency revenue bill accompanying their instructions.

One dollar a thousand on bank stock, surplus and undivided profits will yield a goodly amount.

Billiard and pool halls are required to pay a tax of $5 a table, and another big source of revenue will be the confectionery stores, retail cigar stores, saloons and other places where cigars and tobacco are sold. Places selling $200 worth of cigars a year must pay a tax of $4.80. Commission firms must pay $20 each.

Theatres, the seating capacity of which are in excess of 1,000, must pay a war tax of $100 each, other theatres paying from $25 to $50 each. Brokers will pay $30 each, and pawnbrokers are taxed.

Long distance telephone calls will be taxed from one to five cents, and telegrams will be given the benefit of a war stamp. In addition all public documents, bonds, mortgages and deeds of transfer will hear their share of the war tax burden. Sleeping car tickets will also be taxed.

There is some uncertainty as to what the amount to be fixed on some of the taxable enterprises. However the general public will be apprised before the limit is exceeded.

TO THE VOTERS OF CROW WING COUNTY

Thanks

At the Columbia

A show for the tastes of every one is the one given today at the Columbia. The latest war news from Belgium and many views will again be the drawing card. Mary Pickford, as usual, will be seen in a one act play, "The Two Brothers." Two other splendid dramas will complete a most worthy evening's entertainment.

Tonight only the European war slides will be shown. They are authentic, direct from the American Press Association. "The Jackpot Club" is our feature story tonight. It is one of the strongest problem dramas ever written. The comedy is a Nestor, "Fruits and Floyers." A scream from start to finish.

Tomorrow and Saturday the Grand features a Victor comedy, "Elsie's Uncle." That "Three of a Kind" could ever make a "pair" seems impossible, but did it ever occur to you that the three instead of being cards might be three flesh and blood men. This is a comedy that will hold your interest. "Little Mary" will be before you Friday and Saturday also in "Sweetheart Days."

Deerwood Hunters Preparing for the Big Game Season—Deerwood Band Re-Organized

Deerwood, Minn., Nov. 5.—Deerwood men serving on the grand jury at Brainerd are John A. Oberg and B. Magoffin, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mussey are the parents of a baby boy.

The roast chicken supper given by the Catholic ladies netted almost $60.

The election campaign resulted in a whirl of business for the range papers, and heavy advertising was done by all the candidates.

Ray Vinje, formerly of Madison, Wis., and now of Minneapolis, was a Deerwood visitor this week.

Thomas Keating is making a reputation as one of the best road builders in the country. He has so improved streets in the village and roads leading to Deerwood that his work is receiving favorable mention from every visitor.

P. A. Gough has returned from a business trip to Minneapolis.

B. Magoffin Jr., Culver Adams and Durand Hall have returned from a trip up the M. & I. railway where they were hunting geese.

Deerwood hunters are preparing for the big game season. Last year when many nineros traveled a hundred miles to get a deer, a Deerwood man shot one just a mile from town and heading for Deerwood, the animal died near the village limits and the hunter saved a big drayage bill.

Frank J. Oberg, who has large interests on the Cuyuna iron range, has returned to Minneapolis.

Gust Franzen was in Brainerd on business matters last week.

The ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church held a food sale last Saturday which was very successful. A light lunch was served after the sale.

Water will soon be turned on in Deerwood's waterworks system and will be made the occasion of a celebration.

The sewer system of Deerwood is nearing completion.

A large number of cement sidewalks have been laid in the village and the new curbing put in has also increased the attractiveness of the streets.

The Deerwood band is to be re-organized and a committee including Manager Potts, Attorney H. E. Peterson and Homer F. Mussey is drawing up a constitution and by-laws.

But no—for the little tom-boy heroine has arranged a taffy party, and, horrors upon horrors, has been so bold as to invite her sweetheart from the university across the street. The bold lover climbs a ladder and proceeds to press his suit through the open second-story window, and at such a late hour. Just picture his position when the ill-feeling rival stood up and pulled the ladder away, leaving him struggling in the closet he comes in intimate contact with a pan of taffy.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-size baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

Why, every man who tries it is spreading the news of the Real Tobacco Chew. Once let a man get the taste of pure, rich, sappy tobacco, seasoned and sweetened just enough—and it's all off with the old kind. Get a pouch at your dealer's. Try it—and see for yourself.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

Special Annual Levies and Stamps For Many Things.

TO NET NEAR $100,000,000

Fifty Cents More on Each Barrel of Beer—No War Tax on Whisky—Theater Managers, Brokers, Etc., Taxed. Wire Messages Included—Stamps on Bonds, Stocks, Policies, Etc.

THE main provisions of the new war tax bill just passed by congress to raise a approximately $100,000,000 annual revenue, place special taxes on beer and various wines, tobacco sales, brokers, theater managers, commission merchants, perfumery and cosmetics, bonds, stocks, promissory notes, express and freight bills of lading, telegraph and telephone messages, marine, fire and casualty insurance policies, pawnbrokers and many other minor things.

The chief levies on beer, wines and liquors are: In lieu of the $1 tax now imposed by law, a tax of $1.50 per barrel on all beers will be made. On all still wines, domestic and imported, the war tax will be: On each bottle containing one-fourth pint or less, 1/4 cent; over one-fourth pint and not more than one-half pint, 1/2 cent; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 1 cent; over one pint and not more than one quart, 2 cents; in all other containers 8 cents per gallon.

On all domestic and imported champagne and other sparkling wines and on all artificially carbonated wines the tax will be: One-half pint or less, 5 cents; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 10 cents; over one pint and not more than one quart, 20 cents; all other containers, 20 cents per quart. On all liquors, cordials or similar compounds, domestic and imported, the tax will be: Not more than one-half pint, 1 1/2 cents; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 3 cents; over one pint and not more than one quart, 6 cents; on larger containers, 24 cents per gallon.

There will also be a tax of 55 cents on each taxable gallon of grape brandy or wine spirits used in the fortification of pure sweet wines.

Regarding the fortification of wines, sections 42, 43, 45, 46 and 49 of the act of Oct. 1, 1890, as amended by section 68 of an act approved Aug. 28, 1904, and by an act approved June 7, 1906, are further amended in certain technical details. Section 3 and section 6 of the act of June 7, 1906, amending the laws relating to the fortification of pure sweet wines, are amended to provide for the assignment of government gaugers at wineries and to provide a penalty of from $200 to $1,000 fine for each violation.

Special Annual Taxes.

On and after Nov. 1, 1914, special

taxes will be imposed annually as follows:

Bankers shall pay $1 for each $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits. Postal savings banks and savings banks having no capital stock shall not be subject to this tax.

Brokers shall pay $30. "Every person, firm or company," the law says, "whose business it is to negotiate purchases or sales of stocks, bonds, exchange, bullion, coined money, bank notes, promissory notes or other securities, for themselves or others, shall be regarded as a broker. Provided, that any person having paid the special tax as a banker shall not be required to pay the special tax as a broker."

Proprietors of theaters, museums and concert halls seating not exceeding 250, shall pay $25; not exceeding 500, $50; not exceeding 800, $75; over 800, $100.

"Every edifice," the law says, "used for the purpose of dramatic or operatic or other representations, plays, or performances, for admission to which entrance money is received, not including halls or armories rented or used occasionally for concerts or theatrical representations, shall be regarded as a theater. Provided, that whenever any such edifice is under lease at the passage of this act, the tax shall be paid by the lessee, unless otherwise stipulated between the parties to said lease."

Circuses shall pay $100 in each state they exhibit. Proprietors or agents of all other public exhibitions or shows for money shall pay $10. This does not apply to Chautauques, lecture bureaus, agricultural or industrial fairs, or exhibitions held under the auspices of religious or charitable associations.

Commission merchants shall pay $20 but this does not apply to commission houses run upon a co-operative plan. Any person having paid the special tax as a commercial broker shall not be required to pay the special tax as a commission merchant.

Annual Tobacco Taxes.

On and after Nov. 1, 1914, special taxes on tobacco dealers and manufacturers will be imposed annually as follows:

Dealers in leaf tobacco whose annual sales or transfers do not exceed 50,000 pounds shall each pay $6; not exceeding 100,000 pounds, $12; exceeding 100,000 pounds, $24. If the annual sales or transfers do not exceed 1,000 pounds exemption is granted.

Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed 100,000 pounds shall each pay $6; not exceeding 200,000 pounds, $12; not exceeding 400,000 pounds, $24; not exceeding 1,000,000 pounds, $50; not exceeding 5,000,000 pounds, $90; not exceeding 10,000,000 pounds, $120; not exceeding 20,000,000 pounds, $180; exceeding 20,000,000 pounds, $240.

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales do not exceed 100,000 cigars shall each pay $3; not exceeding 200,000 cigars, $6; not exceeding 400,000 cigars, $12; not exceeding 1,000,000 cigars, $30; not exceeding 5,000,000 cigars, $90; not exceeding 10,000,000 cigars, $120; exceeding 10,000,000 cigars, $180; exceeding 20,000,000 cigars, $240.

Manufacturers of cigarettes whose annual sales do not exceed 1,000,000 cigarettes shall each pay $12; not exceeding 2,000,000 cigarettes, $24; not exceeding 5,000,000 cigarettes, $60; not exceeding 10,000,000 cigarettes, $120; not exceeding 50,000,000 cigarettes, $600; not exceeding 100,000,000 cigarettes, $1,200; exceeding 100,000,000 cigarettes, $2,400.

"In arriving at the amount of license tax to be paid hereunder and in the levy and collection of such tax," the law says, "each person, firm or corporation engaged in the manufacture of cigars, cigarettes (including little cigars) or tobacco shall be considered and deemed a single manufacturer."

The law says regarding special tax violations:

"And every person who carries on any business or occupation for which special taxes are imposed by this act, without having paid the special tax herein provided, shall, besides being liable to the payment of such special tax, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $500, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court. Provided, that the special taxes imposed by this act and payable during the special tax year ending June 30, 1916, shall be collected and paid proportionately for the period during which such taxes shall remain in force during said year."

Special Stamp Taxes.

On and after Dec. 1, 1914, for bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness and certificates of stock a stamp tax of 5 cents on each $100 of value is provided. Government and municipal bonds are exempt, as are stocks and bonds of building and loan associations and mutual ditch or irrigation companies. On all sales or agreements to sell or memoranda of sales or deliveries or transfers of shares or certificates of stock 2 cents on each $100 of value.

These provisions are made: "That it is not intended by this act to impose a tax upon an agreement evidencing a deposit of stock certificates as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which stock certificates are not actually sold, nor upon such stock certificates so deposited: Provided further, that in case of sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the company the stamp shall be placed upon such books, and where the change of ownership is by transfer certificate the stamp shall be placed upon the certificate, and in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed, and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale and the matter or thing to which it refers."

Upon each sale, agreement of sale or agreement to sell any products or merchandise at any exchange or board of trade or other similar place, either for present or future delivery, a stamp of 1 cent for each $100 in value is levied.

Promissory notes and on each renewal are taxed 2 cents for $100 value. Express and freight bills of lading must carry a one cent stamp.

Regarding newspapers the law says: "A consignment of newspapers to any one point or to different points by the same train or conveyance when inclosed in one general bundle at the point of shipment shall be considered as one shipment, and in lieu of a bill of lading therefor the publisher of such newspaper shall file on or before the fifth day of each month with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which such newspaper is published a report under oath showing the number of such shipments during the preceding month, to which report such publisher shall affix and cancel stamps equal in value to 1 cent for each shipment so reported: Provided further, that the report herein required shall not include shipments of newspapers delivered to points within the county in which the same are published."

Regarding telegraph and telephone messages, the law reads:

"It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation owning or operating any telegraph or telephone line or lines to make within thirty days after the expiration of each month a sworn statement to the collector of internal revenue in each of their respective districts, stating the number of dispatches, messages or conversations originated at each of their respective exchanges, toll stations or offices and transmitted thence over their lines during the preceding month for which a charge of 15 cents or more was imposed, and for each of such messages or conversations the said person, firm or corporation shall collect from the person paying for the message or conversation a tax of 1 cent in addition to the regular charges for the message or conversation, which tax the said person, firm or corporation shall in turn pay to the said collector of internal revenue of their respective districts."

Indemnifying bonds are subject to a tax of 50 cents; certificate of profits, 2 cents for each $100; certificates of damage, etc., 25 cents; all other certificates required by law, 10 cents each.

Broker's notes, memorandums of sale, etc., 10 cents each; conveyances, such as deeds, between $100 and $500 above any lien or encumbrance, 50 cents, and 50 cents for each additional $500, but instruments to secure a debt are exempt; custom house receipts, 25 cents to $1 for from $100 to $500 or over; custom house withdrawal entries, 50 cents each.

Insurance Policy Tax.

The tax on marine and fire insurance policies is 1 cent on each dollar of premium, co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies being exempted. Policies of reinsurance are exempt. Other insurance policies and guaranty bonds, except life, personal accident, health and workmen's compensation, one-half of 1 per cent on each dollar.

The full text on insurance is:

"Insurance—Each policy of insurance or other instrument, by whatever name the same shall be called, by which insurance shall be made or renewed upon property of any description (including rents or profits), whether against peril by sea or on inland waters, or by fire or lightning or other peril, made by any person, association or corporation, upon the amount of premium charged, one-half of 1 cent on each dollar or fractional part thereof, provided that purely co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies or associations carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property and not for profit shall be exempted from the tax herein provided. Provided further that policies of reinsurance shall be exempt from the tax herein imposed by this paragraph.

"Each policy of insurance or bond or obligation of the nature of indemnity for loss, damage or liability issued or executed or renewed by any person, association, company or corporation transacting the business of fidelity, employer's liability, plate glass, steam boiler, burglary, elevator, automatic sprinkler or other branch of insurance, except life, personal accident and health insurance and insurance described and taxed or exempted in the preceding paragraph and excepting also workmen's compensation insurance carried on by the members thereof solely for their own protection and not for profit, and each bond undertaken or recognition, conditioned for the performance of the duties of any office or position or for the doing or not doing of anything therein specified or other obligation of the nature of indemnity, and each contract or obligation guaranteeing the validity or legality of bonds or other obligations issued by any state, county, municipal or other public body or organization or guaranteeing titles to real estate or mercantile credits executed or guaranteed by any liability, fidelity, guarantee or surety company upon the amount of premium charged, one-half of 1 cent on each dollar or fractional part thereof, provided that policies of reinsurance shall be exempt from the tax herein proposed by this paragraph."

Power of attorney or proxy for voting at any election for officers of any incorporated company or association, except religious, charitable, or literary societies, or public cemeteries, 10 cents; other powers of attorney, 25 cents; protests, 25 cents.

Perfumery and Toilet Articles.

The stamp tax on perfumery, cosmetics and similar toilet articles ranges from one-eighth of one cent on each five cent package to five-eighths of one cent on each twenty-five cent package, and five-eighths of one cent for each additional 25 cents in value.

All perfumery, cosmetics, etc., which are in the hands of manufacturers or of wholesale or retail dealers on and after Dec. 1, 1914, "shall be subject to the payment of the stamp taxes herein provided for, but it shall be deemed a compliance with this act as to such articles on hand in the hands of wholesale or retail dealers as aforesaid who are not the manufacturers thereof to affix the proper adhesive tax stamp at the time the package, box, bottle, pot or phial or other inclosure with its contents is sold at retail."

Any one who fails to comply with or evades the provisions of the new law must pay double the amount of the tax. Special penalties are provided for any fraudulent use of the war tax stamps whatsoever or for specific evasions.

The total sum of $400,000 is appropriated to collect the war taxes. The act takes effect at once, except where otherwise expressly provided, and will hold until Jan. 1, 1916.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" makes you feel fine at once—Don't stay stuffed-up! Take it now Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharges or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease our throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Advt.

Better Biscuits Baked

With

You never tasted daintier, lighter, fluffier biscuits than those baked with Calumet. They're always good—delicious. For Calumet insures perfect baking.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS

World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago, Illinois.
Paris Exposition, France, March, 1912.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-size baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to any other brand.

HOLD ON MAN! WHY ARE YOU IN SUCH A HURRY?

THE GOOD JUDGE UNDERSTANDS THE GRAIN BUYER'S HASTE.

"RIGHT-CUT" growing!
Why, every man who tries it is spreading the news of the Real Tobacco Chew. Once let a man get the taste of pure, rich, sappy tobacco, seasoned and sweetened just enough—and it's all off with the old kind.

Get a pouch at your dealer's. Try it—and see for yourself.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shreds so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candy tobacco makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

Special Annual Levies and Stamps For Many Things.

Fifty Cents More on Each Barrel of Beer—No War Tax on Whisky—Theater Managers, Brokers, Etc., Taxed. Wire Messages Included—Stamps on Bonds, Stocks, Policies, Etc.

THE main provisions of the new war tax bill just passed by congress to raise approximately $100,000,000 annual revenue, place special taxes on beer and various wines, tobacco sales, brokers, theater managers, commission merchants, perfumery and cosmetics, bonds, stocks, promissory notes, express and freight bills of lading, telegraph and telephone messages, marine, fire and casualty insurance policies, pawnbrokers and many other minor things.

The chief levies on beer, wines and liquors are: In lieu of the $1 tax now imposed by law, a tax of $1.50 per barrel on all beers will be made. On all still wines, domestic and imported, the war tax will be: On each bottle containing one-fourth pint or less, 1/4 cent; over one-fourth pint and not more than one-half pint, 1/2 cent; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 1 cent; over one pint and not more than one quart, 2 cents; in all other containers 8 cents per gallon.

On all domestic and imported champagne and other sparkling wines and on all artificially carbonated wines the tax will be: One-half pint or less, 5 cents; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 10 cents; over one pint and not more than one quart, 20 cents; all other containers, 20 cents per quart. On all liquors, cordials or similar compounds, domestic and imported, the tax will be: Not more than one-half pint, 1 1/2 cents; over one-half pint and not more than one pint, 3 cents; over one pint and not more than one quart, 6 cents; on larger containers, 24 cents per gallon.

There will also be a tax of 55 cents on each taxable gallon of grape brandy or wine spirits used in the fortification of pure sweet wines.

Regarding the fortification of wines, sections 42, 43, 45, 46 and 49 of the act of Oct. 1, 1890, as amended by section 68 of an act approved Aug. 28, 1894, and by an act approved June 7, 1906, are further amended in certain technical details. Section 3 and section 4 of the act of June 7, 1906, amending the laws relating to the fortification of pure sweet wines, are amended to provide for the assignment of government gaugers at wineries and to provide a penalty of from $200 to $1,000 fine for each violation.

Special Annual Taxes.

On and after Nov. 1, 1914, special

taxes will be imposed annually as follows:

Bankers shall pay $1 for each $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits. Postal savings banks and savings banks having no capital stock shall not be subject to this tax.

Brokers shall pay $30. "Every person, firm or company," the law says, "whose business it is to negotiate purchases or sales of stocks, bonds, exchange, bullion, coined money, bank note, promissory notes or other securities, for themselves or others, shall be regarded as a broker: Provided, that any person having paid the special tax as a banker shall not be required to pay the special tax as a broker."

Pawnbrokers shall pay $50. Commercial brokers shall pay $20. Custom house brokers shall pay $10.

Proprietors of theaters, museums and concert halls seating not exceeding 250, shall pay $25; not exceeding 500, $50; not exceeding 800, $75; over 800, $100.

"Every edifice," the law says, "used for the purpose of dramatic or operatic or other representations, plays, or performances, for admission to which entrance money is received, not including halls or armories rented or used occasionally for concerts or theatrical representations, shall be regarded as a theater: Provided, that whenever any such edifice is under lease at the passage of this act, the tax shall be paid by the lessee, unless otherwise stipulated between the parties to said lease."

Circuses shall pay $100 in each state they exhibit. Proprietors or agents of all other public exhibitions or shows for money shall pay $10. This does not apply to Chautauques, lecture lyceums, agricultural or industrial fairs, or exhibitions held under the auspices of religious or charitable associations.

Proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard rooms shall pay $5 for each alley or table.

Commission merchants shall pay $20 but this does not apply to commission houses run on a co-operative plan. Any person having paid the special tax as a commercial broker shall not be required to pay the special tax as a commission merchant.

Annual Tobacco Taxes.

On and after Nov. 1, 1914, special taxes on tobacco dealers and manufacturers will be imposed annually as follows:

Dealers in leaf tobacco whose annual sales or transfers do not exceed 50,000 pounds shall each pay $6; not exceeding 100,000 pounds, $12; exceeding 100,000 pounds, $24. If the annual sales or transfers do not exceed 1,000 pounds exemption is granted.

Dealers in tobacco whose annual receipts from the sale of tobacco exceeds $200 shall pay $4.50 for each store. No manufacturer of tobacco, snuff, cigars or cigarettes shall be required to pay a special tax as a dealer in manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars or cigarettes for selling his own products at the place of manufacture.

Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed 100,000 pounds shall each pay $6; not exceeding 200,000 pounds, $12; not exceeding 400,000 pounds, $24; not exceeding 1,000,000 pounds, $50; not exceeding 5,000,000 pounds, $90; not exceeding 10,000,000 pounds, $120; not exceeding 20,000,000 pounds, $180; exceeding 20,000,000 pounds, $240.

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales do not exceed 100,000 cigars shall each pay $3; not exceeding 200,000 cigars, $6; not exceeding 400,000 cigars, $12; not exceeding 1,000,000 cigars, $30; not exceeding 5,000,000 cigars, $150; not exceeding 20,000,000 cigars, $300; not exceeding 40,000,000 cigars, $1,200; exceeding 40,000,000 cigars, $2,400.

Manufacturers of cigarettes whose annual sales do not exceed 1,000,000 cigarettes shall each pay $12; not exceeding 2,000,000 cigarettes, $24; not exceeding 5,000,000 cigarettes, $60; not exceeding 10,000,000 cigarettes, $120; not exceeding 50,000,000 cigarettes, $300; not exceeding 100,000,000 cigarettes, $1,200; exceeding 100,000,000 cigarettes, $2,400.

"In arriving at the amount of license tax to be paid hereunder and in the levy and collection of such tax," the law says, "each person, firm or corporation engaged in the manufacture of cigars, cigarettes (including little cigars) or tobacco shall be considered and deemed a single manufacturer."

The law says regarding special tax violations: "And every person who carries on any business or occupation for which special taxes are imposed by this act, without having paid the special tax herein provided, shall, besides being liable to the payment of such special tax, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $500, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court. Provided, that the special taxes imposed by this act and payable during the special tax year ending June 30, 1916, shall be collected and paid proportionately for the period during which such taxes shall remain in force during said year."

Special Stamp Taxes.

On and after Dec. 1, 1914, for bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness and certificates of stock a stamp tax of 5 cents on each $100 of value is provided. Government and municipal bonds are exempt, as are stocks and bonds of building and loan associations and mutual ditch or irrigation companies. On all sales or agreements to sell or memorandum of sales or deliveries or transfers of shares or certificates of stock 2 cents on each $100 of value.

These provisos are made:

"That it is not intended by this act to impose a tax upon an agreement evidencing a deposit of stock certificates as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which stock certificates are not actually sold, nor upon such stock certificates so deposited: Provided further, that in case of sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the company the stamp shall be placed upon such books, and where the change of ownership is by transfer certificate the stamp shall be placed upon the certificate, and in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed, and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale and the matter or thing to which it refers."

Upon each sale, agreement of sale or agreement to sell any products or merchandise at any exchange or board of trade or other similar place, either for present or future delivery, a stamp of 1 cent for each $100 in value is levied.

Express and freight bills of lading must carry a one cent stamp.

Regarding newspapers the law says: "A consignment of newspapers to any one point or to different points by the same train or conveyance when inclosed in one general bundle at the point of shipment shall be considered as one shipment, and in lieu of a bill of lading therefor the publisher of such newspaper shall file on or before the fifteenth day of each month with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which such newspaper is published a report under oath showing the number of such shipments during the preceding month, to which report such publisher shall affix and cancel stamps equal in value to 1 cent for each shipment so reported: Provided further, that the report herein required shall not include shipments of newspapers delivered to points within the county in which the same are published."

Regarding telegraph and telephone messages, the law reads:

"It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation owning or operating any telegraph or telephone line or lines to make within thirty days after the expiration of each month a sworn statement to the collector of internal revenue in each of their respective districts, stating the number of dispatches, messages or conversations originated at each of their respective exchanges, toll stations or offices and transmitted thence over their lines during the preceding month for which a charge of 15 cents or more was imposed, and for each of such messages or conversations the said person, firm or corporation shall collect from the person paying for the message or conversation a tax of 1 cent in addition to the regular charges for the message or conversation, which tax the said person, firm or corporation shall in turn pay to the said collector of internal revenue of their respective districts."

Indemnifying bonds are subject to a tax of 50 cents; certificate of profits, 2 cents for each $100; certificates of damage, etc., 25 cents; all other certificates required by law, 10 cents each.

Broker's notes, memorandums of sale, etc., 10 cents each; conveyances, such as deeds, between $100 and $500 above any lien or encumbrance, 50 cents, and 50 cents for each additional $500, but instruments to secure a debt are exempt; custom house receipts, 25 cents to $1 for from $100 to $500 or over; custom house withdrawal entries, 50 cents each.

Insurance Policy Tax.

The tax on marine and fire insurance policies is 1 cent on each dollar of premium, co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies being exempted. Policies of reinsurance are exempt. Other insurance policies and guaranty bonds, except life, personal accident, health and workmen's compensation, one-half of 1 per cent on each dollar.

The full text on insurance is: "Insurance—Each policy of insurance or other instrument, by whatever name the same shall be called, by which insurance shall be made or renewed upon property of any description (including rents or profits), whether against peril by sea or on inland waters, or by fire or lightning or other peril, made by any person, association or corporation, upon the amount of premium charged, one-half of 1 cent on each dollar or fractional part thereof, provided that purely co-operative or mutual fire insurance companies or associations carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property and not for profit shall be exempted from the tax herein provided. Provided further that policies of reinsurance shall be exempt from the tax herein imposed by this paragraph."

"Each policy of insurance or bond or obligation of the nature of indemnity for loss, damage or liability issued or executed or renewed by any person, association, company or corporation transacting the business of fidelity, employer's liability, plate glass, steam boiler, burglary, elevator, automatic sprinkler or other branch of insurance, except life, personal accident and health insurance and insurance described and taxed or exempted in the preceding paragraph and excepting also workmen's compensation insurance carried on by the members thereof solely for their own protection and not for profit, and each bond undertaking or recognizance, conditioned for the performance of the duties of any office or position or for the doing or not doing of anything therein specified or other obligation of the nature of in-

Passage ticket sold in the United States to a foreign port not exceeding $30, $1; not exceeding $50, $3; exceeding $50, $5; tickets costing $10 or less exempted.

Power of attorney or proxy for voting at any election for officers of any incorporated company or association, except religious, charitable, or literary societies, or public cemeteries, 10 cents; other powers of attorney, 25 cents; protests, 25 cents.

Every seat sold in a palace or parlor car and every berth sold in a sleeping car, 1 cent, paid by the company.

Perfumery and Toilet Articles.

The stamp tax on perfumery, cosmetics and similar toilet articles range from one-eighth of one cent on each five cent package to five-eighths of one cent on each twenty-five cent package, and five-eighths of one cent for each additional 25 cents in value.

All perfumery, cosmetics, etc., which are in the hands of manufacturers or of wholesale or retail dealers on and after Dec. 1, 1914, "shall be subject to the payment of the stamp taxes herein provided for, but it shall be deemed a compliance with this act as to such articles on hand in the hands of wholesale or retail dealers as aforesaid who are not the manufacturers thereof to affix the proper adhesive tax stamp at the time the packet, box, bottle, pot or phial or other inclosure with its contents is sold at retail."

For chewing gums, or substitutes, 4 cents for each $1 of value.

Any one who fails to comply with or evades the provisions of the new law must pay double the amount of the tax. Special penalties are provided for any fraudulent use of the war tax stamps whatsoever or for specific evasions.

The total sum of $400,000 is appropriated to collect the war taxes. The act takes effect at once, except where otherwise expressly provided, and will hold until Jan. 1, 1916.
